CHRISTIANITY ON THE FRONT LINE OVER 500 CHRISTIANS KILLED IN ETHIOPIA

An Ethiopian Christian leader called for an international inquiry into the slaying of hundreds of Christians, including pregnant women, children and whole families, in ongoing Oromo Muslim extremist attacks in the parts of the Oromia regional state, extending south, south-east and east of Addis Ababa, since the end of June. According to reports, more than 500 were killed.

The coordinated killings, targeting Christians from a wide range of ethnicities including Oromo Christians, began soon after the alleged assassination of a popular Oromo singer, Hachallu Hundessa, who was shot dead on 29 June, while driving in the outskirts of the capital.

The attackers are from the Oromo ethnic group, which has traditionally been Muslim, and are members of Qeerroo (meaning, “bachelors”), an Oromo male youth movement.

In door-to-door attacks on Christian households the Qeerroo extremists arrived in cars and, armed with guns, machetes, swords and spears, sought out and slaughtered Christians. Children were forced to witness their parents being brutally murdered with machetes.

Barnabas regional contacts confirmed attacks in numerous towns including Arsi Negele, Ziway, Shashemane, Gedeb Asasa, Kofele, Dodola, Adaba, Robe, Goba, Bale Agarfa, Chiro, Harar, Dire Dawa, Adama, Dera, Asela and Kembolcha, reaching to the far south-east and east of the country.

Some of the Qeerroo militants held lists of Christians and were helped by local authorities, often run by Muslims in the Oromia region, to find individuals, particularly those actively involved in supporting the Church.

Oromo ethnic Christians were also targeted. An Oromo Christian was beheaded for refusing to deny his faith by tearing off the thread around his neck (worn by many Ethiopian Christians as a sign of their baptism). His widow told Barnabas, “The attackers said that it is only he/she who prostrates with us before Allah for prayer who is considered an Oromo.”

Local witnesses said that police stood by and watched as the murders unfolded. However, contacts reported that, in Bale Agarfa, some Christians were saved by the intervention of courageous local Muslims who risked their own lives to protect them.

Christians’ business premises and houses were burnt down, vandalised or destroyed by the extremists. Billions of dollars of damage was caused to property, including businesses owned by internationally renowned Christian athlete, Haile Gebreselassie, in Ziway and Shashamahe towns.

The severity of the atrocities shocked local witnesses who gave accounts of harrowing scenes. In Dera, a witness described how the killers desecrated corpses by “dancing and singing, carrying the chopped or hacked body parts of those they slaughtered”. Another witness reported how the hacked bodies of an elderly Christian couple, who were beaten to death in their home, were dragged through the streets in Gedeb Asasa.

CHRISTIANITY ON THE FRONT LINE OVER 500 CHRISTIANS KILLED IN ETHIOPIA

Thousands of traumatised survivors have fled for their lives, including orphaned children, and many are being sheltered in churches and community centres. A regional contact told Barnabas, “Many still live in fear. Christian leaders from all denominations visited the areas. I watched news where priests and pastors physically wept in tears while they listened to horrors from the victims’ families.”

The Ethiopian government suspended the internet in the region for several weeks in an attempt to reduce incitement to violence through social media channels.

Government security forces have been slow to intervene to halt the atrocity, which is being compared to the surge of murders that led up to the Rwandan genocide. However, thousands of arrests have since been made, according to regional reports, including local officials implicated in the attacks.

As of 27 August, Barnabas contacts say the “targeted genocide” of Christians by the extremists is continuing in the south, south-east and east of Addis Ababa. Ethiopian Christians in touch with Barnabas urge concerned readers and supporters to contact their Ethiopian embassy, to call for immediate action to bring to a halt the atrocities continuing in the Oromia regional state at this time.

High-profile Oromo media mogul, Jawar Mohammed, provoked unrest in Ethiopia in October 2019 when he criticised the government in tweets to his supporters. Violent protests ensued leading to 67 deaths.

Around the same time, two pastors were beheaded in Sebeta, in the Oromia region to the south-east of Addis Ababa. A Barnabas contact added that many churches were burnt that year.

Since September 2018, violent ethnic clashes have led to some two million Ethiopians becoming internally displaced.

The Gospel came to Ethiopia during the first century. Despite its early origins, many Ethiopian Christians still face persecution. In predominantly Islamic areas, like the Greater Somalia Region in southeastern Ethiopia, communities and families persecute Christians, and militant Muslim groups have used recent political unrest as an opportunity to launch attacks. Churches have been destroyed and Christians beaten and/or killed.

In northern Ethiopia, some traditional Christians persecute evangelical believers by tearing down their churches, causing physical harm and denying them jobs and burial places. Freedom of religion is upheld in Ethiopia by the government, which generally works to protect the rights of Christians.

WHAT IS LIFE LIKE FOR CHRISTIANS?

Most Christians worship freely and openly. However, evangelicals sometimes face pressure to join the Orthodox Church, and Christian converts from Islam face great challenges and even death threats in Muslim-majority areas, particularly in the east and within refugee camps for Somalis. In addition, vestiges of Communist rule lead authorities to monitor the activities of churches and Christian organizations, particularly those that are evangelical. Still, these churches in Ethiopia continue to establish new congregations and send missionaries into difficult areas.

CHINA PERSECUTION; CLOSING CHURCHES, JAILING PASTORS— REWRITING SCRIPTURES

In late October, the pastor of one of China's best-known underground churches asked this of his congregation: had they successfully spread the gospel throughout their city? "If tomorrow morning the Early Rain Covenant Church suddenly disappeared from the city of Chengdu, if each of us vanished into thin air, would this city be any different? Would anyone miss us?" said Wang Yi, leaning over his pulpit and pausing to let the question weigh on his audience. "I don't know."

Almost three months later, Wang's hypothetical scenario is being put to the test. The church in south-west China has been shuttered and Wang and his wife, Jiang Rong, remain in detention after police arrested more than 100 Early Rain church members in December. Many of those who haven't been detained are in hiding. Others have been sent away from Chengdu and barred from returning. Some, including Wang's mother and his young son, are under close surveillance. Wang and his wife are being charged for "inciting subversion", a crime that carries a penalty of up to 15 years in prison.

Now the hall Wang preached from sits empty, the pulpit and cross that once hung behind him both gone. Prayer cushions have been replaced by a ping-pong table and a film of dust. New tenants, a construction company and a business association, occupy the three floors the church once rented. Plainclothes police stand outside, turning away those looking for the church.

One of the officers told the Observer: "I have to tell you to leave and watch until you get in a car and go."

Early Rain is the latest victim of what Chinese Christians and rights activists say is the worst crackdown on religion since the country's Cultural Revolution, when Mao Zedong's government vowed to eradicate religion.

Researchers say the current drive, fuelled by government unease over the growing number of Christians and their potential links to the west, is aimed not so much at destroying Christianity but bringing it to heel.

"The government has orchestrated a campaign to 'sinicise' Christianity, to turn Christianity into a fully domesticated religion that would do the bidding of the party," said Lian Xi, a professor at Duke University in North Carolina, who focuses on Christianity in modern China.

Over the past year, local governments have shut hundreds of unofficial congregations or "house churches" that operate outside the government-approved church network, including Early Rain. A statement signed by 500 house church leaders in November says authorities have removed crosses from buildings, forced churches to hang the Chinese flag and sing patriotic songs, and barred minors from attending.

Churchgoers say the situation will get worse as the campaign reaches more of the country. Another church in Chengdu was placed under investigation last week. Less than a week after the mass arrest of Early Rain members, police raided a children's Sunday school at a church in Guangzhou. Officials have also banned the 1,500-member Zion church in Beijing after its pastor refused to install CCTV.

In November the Guangzhou Bible Reformed Church was shut for the second time in three months. "The Chinese Communist Party (CCP) wants to be the God of China and the Chinese people. But according to the Bible only God is God. The government is scared of the churches," said Huang Xiaoning, the church's pastor.

Local governments have also shut the state-approved "sanzi" churches. Sunday schools and youth ministries have been banned. One of the first signs of a crackdown was when authorities forcibly removed more than 1,000 crosses from sanzi churches in Zhejiang province between 2014 and 2016.

"The goal of the crackdown is not to eradicate religions," said Ying Fuk Tsang, director of the Christian Study Centre on Chinese Religion and Culture at the Chinese University of Hong Kong. "President Xi Jinping is trying to establish a new order on religion, suppressing its blistering development. The government aims to regulate the 'religious market' as a whole."

While the CCP is officially atheist, Protestantism and Catholicism are two of five faiths sanctioned by the government and religious freedom has been enshrined in the constitution since the 1980s. For decades, authorities tolerated the house churches, which refused to register with government bodies that required church leaders to adapt teachings to follow party doctrine.

CHINA PERSECUTION; CLOSING CHURCHES, JAILING PASTORS— REWRITING SCRIPTURES

As China experienced an explosion in the number of religious believers, the government has grown wary of Christianity and Islam in particular, with their overseas links. In Xinjiang, a surveillance and internment system has been built for Muslim minorities, notably the Uighurs. Xi has called for the country to guard against “infiltration” through religion and extremist ideology. “What happens in Xinjiang and what happens to house churches is connected,” said Eva Pils, a professor of law at King’s College London, focusing on human rights. “Those kinds of new attitudes have translated into different types of measures against Christians, which amount to intensified persecution of religious groups.”

There are at least 60 million Christians in China, spanning rural and urban areas. Congregation-based churches can organise large groups across the country and some have links with Christian groups abroad. Pastors such as Wang of Early Rain are especially alarming for authorities. Under Wang, a legal scholar and public intellectual, the church has advocated for parents of children killed in the 2008 Sichuan earthquake and for families of those affected by faulty vaccines. Every year the church commemorates victims of the 4 June protests in 1989, which were forcibly put down by the Chinese military.

“Early Rain church is one of the few who dare to face what is wrong in society,” said one member. “Most churches don’t dare talk about this, but we obey strictly obey the Bible, and we don’t avoid anything.”

Wang and Early Rain belong to what some see as a new generation of Christians that has emerged alongside a growing civil rights movement. Increasingly, activist church leaders have taken inspiration from the democratising role the church played in eastern European countries in the Soviet bloc or South Korea under martial law, according to Lian. Several of China’s most active human rights lawyers are Christians.

“They have come to see the political potential of Christianity as a force for change,” said Lian. “What really makes the government nervous is Christianity’s claim to universal rights and values.”

As of 2018, the government has implemented sweeping rules on religious practices, adding more requirements for religious groups and barring unapproved organisations from engaging in any religious activity. But the campaign is not just about managing behaviour. One of the goals of a government work plan for “promoting Chinese Christianity” between 2018 and 2022 is “thought reform”. The plan calls for “retranslating and annotating” the Bible, to find commonalities with socialism and establish a “correct understanding” of the text.

“Ten years ago, we used to be able to say the party was not really interested in what people believed internally,” said Pils. “Xi Jinping’s response is much more invasive and it is in some ways returning to Mao-era attempts to control hearts and minds.”

Bibles, sales of which have always been controlled in China, are no longer available for purchase online, a loophole that had existed for years. In December, Christmas celebrations were banned in several schools and cities across China.

“Last year’s crackdown is the worst in three decades,” said Bob Fu, the founder of ChinaAid, a Christian advocacy group based in the US.

In Chengdu, Early Rain has not vanished. Before the raid, a plan was in place to preserve the church, with those who were not arrested expected to keep it running, holding meetings wherever they could. Slowly, more Early Rain members are being released. As of 9 January, 25 were still in detention.

They maintain contact through encrypted platforms. On New Year’s Eve, 300 people joined an online service, some from their homes, others from cars or workplaces, to pray for 2019. Others gather in small groups in restaurants and parks. One member, a student who was sent back to Guangzhou, said he preaches the gospel to the police who monitor him.

The church continues to send out daily scripture and posts videos of sermons. In one, pastor Wang alludes to the coming crackdown: “In this war, in Xinjiang, in Shanghai, in Beijing, in Chengdu, the rulers have chosen an enemy that can never be imprisoned – the soul of man. Therefore they are doomed to lose this war.”

reflections

Because you are unaware of cancer in your body, does it mean it does not exist? Will it stop it from killing you (the entire body)?

In fact, the longer it remains undetected and unaddressed is the more dangerous it is.

You go to the doctor to know what is happening to your physical body so you can take the necessary action.

We give you information about what is happening in the body of Christ, the spiritual body of which you are a part, so you can take the necessary spiritual action.

Never consider yourself safe and unaffected, these are the end times, it is just a matter of time now, when it all becomes one movement. The sectionalized becomes generalized. If there is anything the coronavirus should have taught you, the world is a global nation. Whatever happens in one part of the world affects all the world. The coronavirus did not take long. It started in China, now every country is affected, economies are destroyed, people are dying, in many countries, more than China.

Live the lesson and stop fooling yourself. There is no exclusion. The church is being persecuted in Africa, or China, you are being persecuted. In this spiritual world there are no borders or time separation. You are spirits living in bodies. The bodies one day will die but spirits never die.

Live the true you, from the spirit and not after the order and dictates of the flesh.

NOW ASK YOURSELF THESE QUESTIONS?

ARE YOU REALLY SAFE WHILE MEMBERS OF THE BODY ARE BEING PERSECUTED?

ARE YOU REALLY FREE WHILE MEMBERS OF THE BODY ARE IN PRISON?

ARE YOU REALLY VICTORIOUS WHILE MEMBERS OF THE BODY ARE DEFEATED?

ARE YOU REALLY PROSPEROUS WHILE MEMBERS OF THE BODY ARE STARVING AND STRUGGLING?

ARE YOU REALLY ALIVE WHILE MEMBERS OF THE BODY ARE DYING?

ARE YOU REALLY HEALTHY WHILE MEMBERS OF THE BODY ARE CANCEROUS?

ARE YOU REALLY CELEBRATED WHILE MEMBERS OF THE BODY ARE BEING MARGINALIZED, OSTRACIZED AND DENIED PRIVILEGES?

Whatever happens in small portions in this generation is a template for abuse in the next generation; take the 80's and the general public response to homosexuality; take the present day and the acceptability of same-sex marriages and the animosity towards objection. Take 2020 and the persecution of Christians in isolated countries; have a re-take and imagine what the devil and his demons are about to take this template and do in these end-times. You do not need to look beyond the prophetic scriptures. Take it seriously and do not take your relative freedom for granted. Begin to take responsibility and to react as if you, yourself are under fire and persecution. IT IS WARFARE TIME.

THE GLOBAL KINGDOM GOSPEL MAGAZINE FUNCTIONS AS THE DOCTOR THAT DIAGNOSES PROBLEMS IN THE KINGDOM IN THESE END TIMES; WE GIVE YOU A SCRIPTURE AND A PRAYER RESPONSE (SEE BELOW), NOT TO INSTRUCT YOU, BUT TO DIRECT YOUR OWN PERSONAL RESPONSE AND TO MOTIVATE YOU TO RESPONDING.

WE WILL THEN MOVE DIRECTLY INTO THE JOHN GRAY'S PUBLIC SITUATION OF INFIDELITY (EMOTIONAL RELATIONSHIP WITH ANOTHER WOMAN) AND HIS STEPPING AWAY FROM MINISTRY TEMPORARILY. OUR GOAL IS TO SHOW YOU WHAT THE DEVIL IS DOING AND TO CONDITION A RIGHTEOUS RESPONSE.

HEAVENLY FATHER, WE RELEASE YOUR GRACE FOR THE PERSECUTED CHURCH IN THE EARTH TODAY; SEND COMFORT, STRENGTH AND IMMEASURABLE JOY TO THOSE IMPRISONED FOR THEIR FAITH. WE RELEASE A CONTINGENT OF ANGELS TO THEIR FAMILIES AND CHURCH BRETHREN. LET YOUR ANGELS SURROUND THEM AS THE WALL SURROUNDS JERUSALEM. HOLY SPIRIT, COMFORTER, COMFORT ALL THOSE WHO MOURN IN ZION; VINDICATE THEIR FAITH AND IMMOVABLE CONFIDENCE IN YOU. AMEN.

Thank You, Holy Spirit, that I will not be shaken. I sow seeds of faith for my generations in these evil times and I declare that they will be steadfast, unshakable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, with full assurance that You will vindicate them; their labor is not in vain. I see them Lord, as lights in the midst of a dark world; as faithful in the midst of demonic audacity and boldness in these times; they shall stand for Jesus. Amen.

1 CORINTHIANS 12—CWDS BIBLE WITH QUOTES & PRAYERS

WE ARE A BODY; THERE IS NO NEUTRALITY!

SOME feeble, some strong; all and altogether one.

Diverse posts, diverse gifts, but all of the same brand.

Pluck out your eyes and you will see; or cut off your feet, then go walk free.

Will not every other member hurt and feel? Some feeble and some strong, but all and altogether one.

Some speak with tongues, some prophesy; We have apostles, prophets and teachers alike.

Yet every member has his voice; Some feeble, some strong, yet all and altogether one.

1 CORINTHIANS 12

¹Now brethren, concerning spiritual gifts I would not have you ignorant of this.

²You know that you were Gentiles, carried away in worshipping these dumb idols.

³Therefore, I would have you understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God calls Jesus Christ accursed; and that no one can say that Jesus is Lord but by the Holy Ghost in him.

⁴Now there are diversities of gifts, by the same Spirit,

⁵and there are differences of administration by one and the same Lord.

⁶And there are varieties of operations, but it is the same God who works all in all.

⁷But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit by it.

⁸For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom, and to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit.

⁹And to another faith by the same Spirit, to another the gifts of healing;

¹⁰to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another spiritual discerning; to another tongues of diverse kinds, to another the interpretation of tongues likewise.

¹¹All these things are works of the same Spirit, as He desires, He bestows on every man.

¹²For even as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of that one body are one body, although they are many, even so also is the body of Christ.

¹³For we are all baptized by one Spirit into one body.

Whether we are bond or free, Jews or Gentiles, all have been made to drink of the one Spirit.

¹⁴For the body is many members and not one.

¹⁵If the foot shall say, "Because I am not the hand I am not of the body," is it not of the body then?

¹⁶And what if the ear says, "I am not the eye, thus I am not of the body."

Is it not of the body therefore?

¹⁷If the whole body were an eye to see, then where would the hearing be?

And if the whole body were hearing, where is the smelling?

¹⁸But God has set all the members, in the body as He pleases.

¹⁹Or if they were all one member, where then would the body be?

²⁰Now then they are many members, yet one body.

²¹The eye cannot therefore say to the hand, "I have no need of you!"

nor say to the feet, "I need you not."

²²No! Much more these members of the body that seem to be more feeble are necessary;

²³and those members of the body which we think are the least honorable, upon these we bestow more abundant honor, and more abundant beauty to our uncomely parts, ²⁴for our comely parts have no need of this.

But God has tempered the body together, giving more abundant honor to the parts that lacked,

²⁵that there be no schisms in the body, but that all members should care for each other.

²⁶And when one member suffers, all members suffer its pain.

and when one member is honored, all rejoice with it.

²⁷Now you are the body of Christ and you are members in particular.

²⁸And God has set some in the church; first apostles, second prophets and thirdly teachers, after that miracles, the gifts of healings, helps, governments and diversities of tongues.

²⁹Are all apostles? Are all prophets?

Are all teachers or workers of miracles?

³⁰Have all the gifts of healing? Do all speak with tongues?

Do all move in interpretation?

³¹Yet I say you should covet with every earnest, the best of all these gifts.

Yet I show to you that there is a more excellent way than this.

WE ARE A BODY; THERE IS NO NEUTRALITY!

CWDS Bible Quotes

The Holy Spirit defines and refines your conversation concerning the Lord; you cannot accept or express the Lordship of Christ except by the Holy Spirit.

The Holy Spirit identifies Christ to every person and for every person; it is impossible for the flesh to identify Him.

One God, one Lord, one Spirit; differing functions, one work.

Get close to the giver and access the gifts; make friends with the giver and possess the gifts.

The Holy Spirit gives the gifts as He desires; whether power gifts, or ministry gifts, there is one giver, the Holy Spirit, and He only gives from His place of residences in you.

Recognize the Holy Spirit and spend time with Him; the Holy Spirit is not in heaven but in you; He is the repository of heavenly deposits in you, therefore know Him to display heaven in this earth.

Christ is one body with many members, not one head with many bodies; we have different functions but one functionary and one focus.

Diversity increases capability and reduces complexity; the importance of every member of the body is known when that member is missing or absent.

Celebrate every member of the body as if you cannot do without them, because, of a truth, you cannot.

Celebration and honor is natural for the visible and active members of the body; celebration and honor is necessary for the less visible but functioning members of the body.

You cannot walk without the members of your body that you walk on; at least buy them beautiful shoes.

You cannot glory outside without the members of the body that are hidden inside, ensure they are functioning and well taken care of.

You are dead if your organs fail; let your heart beat love for every other member of the body.

The body cannot send the foot to the hospital while it watches television, it must go with the affected member; this is a picture of the functional church; we cannot distance, disassociate or detach ourselves, we must share every moment of pain and victory.

Pastors, teachers, prophets and evangelists are gifts within the body that must be recognized and celebrated.

The ministry gifts are given but should not be taken for granted; earnestly desire, seek after, position yourself to attract the best gifts or the gift that best suits you and your calling.

PRAYER POINTS

I hereby confess that Jesus is Lord and there is none but Him; thank You Holy Spirit for this resolve. Amen.

Holy Spirit, place Your witness in the hearts of unbelievers and make the Word come alive to them. Amen.

Spirit of the living God, I embrace Your divine work in my life. Amen.

I love You Holy Spirit; You are the closest person to me and I will be deliberate about knowing You and walking with and in You. Amen.

Holy Spirit, it is a joy to have You; I request of You all the gifts necessary to make me an effective Christian; let faith, miracles and prophecy be my portion. Amen.

Christ is one body with many members, not one head with many bodies; we have different functions but one functionary and one focus.

Diversity increases capability and reduces complexity; the importance of every member of the body is known when that member is missing or absent.

Celebrate every member of the body as if you cannot do without them, because, of a truth, you cannot.

The body cannot send the foot to the hospital while it watches television, it must go with the affected member; this is a picture of the functional church; we cannot distance, disassociate or detach ourselves, we must share every moment of pain and victory.

I rebuke the spirit of condemnation from the hearts of believers and release the spirit of love and care for each member, in the name of Jesus.

PASTOR JOHN GRAY DEMITS OFFICE FOR A SEASON OF REHAB AFTER AFFAIR

In an emotional videotaped confession posted online Sunday, Relentless Church Pastor John Gray apologized and addressed rumors that spread through entertainment blogs earlier this month.

Allegations of an extramarital relationship first spread on social media and entertainment news websites on Aug. 21, when a woman who claimed to have been communicating with Gray was featured on a live video stream on YouTube.

Last week, Gray's attorneys told The Greenville News that Gray was the victim of extortion and blackmail, and they said that a physical affair was never alleged.

On Sunday, August 30, Gray told his congregation that he is undergoing extensive counseling and seeking guidance of other pastors for help. "There are people who may never listen to me preach again, and I am so very sad about that," Gray in his sermon. "I also believe this moment will call more people to repentance unto salvation. In that, my pain will have been worth it."

Gray continues to assert that his wife has been and still is his only sexual partner and this brief relationship was just emotional. He said pastors are held to the highest of standards, need to maintain their character when no one is looking and have "fidelity and faithfulness in marriage." He said not staying accountable caused him to make "bad decisions."

Gray said he is not sure how long his therapy process will take, and he told his congregation that they may not see him for some weeks.

"I'm going deeper into the process so that I once and for all can receive the same freedom that I pray for everybody else," he said.

Gray also took the opportunity to apologize to his wife, Averter, and then to the church. "Averter, I am sorry for the pain I have caused you, and my prayer is that the life I live from this moment will be one worthy of the love that you extended that our family receives from. I am grateful for you and our children," he said. "To my church, I am sorry. You've gone through enough – from cars, to meetings with leaders that have caused great pain and deep division among political ideologies to one thing after another. I want to tell you I'm sorry."

Gray is an associate pastor for Joel Osteen's Lakewood Church in Houston. He is a TBN presenter. He came to Greenville in 2018. Gray formed Relentless Church out of the former Redemption Church campus when pastor Ron Carpenter moved his Redemption Church ministry to California.

Gray has roughly one million followers on Instagram, has published two books and was formerly a reality television star on the Oprah Winfrey Network show "The Book of John Gray."

He was the subject of an earlier controversy in 2019 that Gray had referred to as an "emotional affair."

END-TIMES PRESSURE ON THE CHURCH

HOW THE DEVIL IS USING CORONAVIRUS TO INFILTRATE OUR RANKS

There are some who believe the coronavirus is an act of judgment from God due to the increase of wickedness and moral decadence in today's society. Some, however, want to leave God out of the picture and place the blame at the feet of Satan. There are others who believe God does not directly send these plagues, instead, He steps aside to give the devil permission when the standard of life of mankind forces His hand. They use Satan's conversation with God concerning Job to prove this.

There are others who believe that mankind bring it all upon themselves. They put so much pressure on God to remove His covering. They place their weight in the evil acts of the devil and join hands with him against God. When God's hand of covering shifts slightly, the heart of the devil is revealed, and he unleashes wickedness on everyone who joins hands with him. One pastor says, Satan has no capacity of loving. He hates even his own demons. He then blames the evil on God and smiles at his own cunning and deceptiveness.

Whatever the situation, we know chaos and suffering is a feast for the devil. Nothing excites him more than to kill, to steal and to destroy. This is his only mission. It is celebration-time in the kingdom of darkness. Demons are excited, enthused and motivated in this coronavirus time. It also provides a platform for them to sift and attack believers individually but especially to attack church leaders.

Jesus was attacked when He had voluntary fasting for forty days. He was at the limit the body human could survive. He was physically drained and at the lowest mental point. It was a clear opportunity for the devil to secure, 'yes, yes!'; for him hopefully with little resistance.

His first attack was in the area of food: 'Make these stones into bread.' Jesus' dreams were attacked then also, He was offered the kingdom of the earth for worship. He was attacked in the area of pride also. The devil launched three major attacks and only the first related to his physical hunger. Not only was Jesus attacked in the area of food, but He was tested for compromise in the other areas. Weakness in one area will mar your judgment and breach your resolve and resistance if you are weak in other areas. Satan will test every area of weakness if he gains access through an area of weakness or personal pain.

If you are hungry, he may not get you to steal, but he will test you in the area of sexual weakness through possible frustration. He knows the areas you have been gullible to in the past. Just as Jesus numbers our hair, Satan numbers all the times you have fallen prey in different areas of sin. He knows the areas of immaturity in your faith, and the challenges you are having from past abuses, by testing. He numbers your past addictions and have familiar spirits assigned to you all your life. Their duty is to get you reengaged in past sins and weaknesses. They gain access through frustration, fear and worry. That is why you are taught thanksgiving and not to worry but seek the kingdom first. This is no ordinary season, it is demonic feast-time with temptation on the rise.

DEMONIC OPPORTUNITIES DURING CORONAVIRUS

What are the opportunities the devil is targeting in this season?

YOUR FINANCES: Loss of job, loss of income, financing of family, care about your children, uncertainties about the future are doors for Christian to be tested for faith and faithfulness.

FEAR: Fear of the virus and fear of the future causes many to lose faith even in their God. The devil will gain access if you open the door of fear and anxiety. He causes depression and uses it to trap you into old unproductive and sinful habits.

MOURNING: Mourning the loss of a loved one in the coronavirus opens the door of pain.

LOSS OF FELLOWSHIP: The loss of church fellowship and the fellowship of close family members in person is another access point that can trigger depression and give room for demonic oppression. It may also affect your spiritual discipline which gives demons countless opportunities as they see the gaps begin to widen in your spiritual armor.

EXTREME PRESSURE ON CHURCH LEADERS IN THIS TIME

DOORS DEMONS ARE ENTERING DURING COVID-19

THE LOSS OF VACATION AND RECREATION: This is also an opportunity as individuals build their lives on routines that are no longer available.

INACTIVITY: This for many is another opportunity. There is the saying that the devil finds work for idle hands to do.

ABSENCE OF DIRECT ACCOUNTABILITY. For those who have been doing counselling, the absence of in-person counsel, seeing pastors and church leaders and other brethren regularly and even family and others you respect may create opportunities of complacency.

ONLINE ADDICTION TO UNHEALTHY PRODUCTS.

Satan's object is for you to curse God and die spiritually as he directly suggested to Job through his wife.

We will talk in a later article about how to address some of these but today we want to focus on leaders.

PRESSURE ON LEADERS

Pastor Alph Lukau, in his "Let's Pray" program on September 5, made a passionate plea for believers to pray for church leaders, especially their own. He emphasized the immeasurable pressure leaders are going through during this pandemic which is mostly ignored by their congregation.

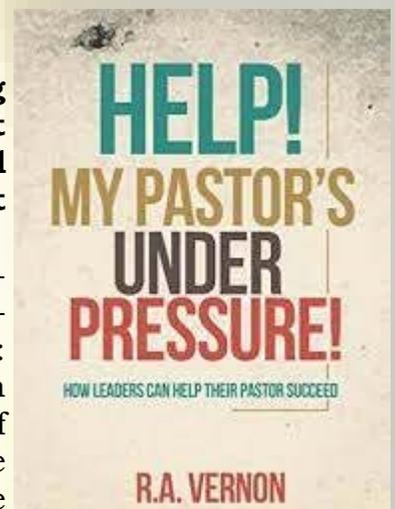

ACCORDING TO PASTOR ALPH: I want you to keep on praying for servants of God. In our time today men and women of God are going through so much difficulties out there. Most of them, especially in this time, have nobody to speak to. They are going through literally pain in their flesh because of ministry. Some of them have seen their ministry closed and not know if they will ever stand up again. This is causing all types of difficulties, pressure in their spirits. But I want you as a child of God to remember them in prayer. If you do so, God will bless you. Men and women of God established by God are sent as gifts to the body. They are there to strengthen you. In these times of difficulties they are standing with you, praying for you, sharing the word with you, but in their hearts many of them do not know how to stand. They do not even know if they will survive. But while it lasts they are carrying on doing what they have to do. I am making a plea to you to please pray for your pastors; pray for your man of God; pray for your woman of God and the glory of God will manifest in their lives and the Lord will remember you; He will bless you.

SOME OF THE PRESSURE OUR LEADERS FACE

We have seen John Gray fall publicly but we are not seeing the many who are falling privately. In this article we want to open your eyes to how easy it is for your pastor to fall by looking at some areas of access the devil will use to get at them.

THE FINANCES OF THE CHURCH—Individual church members make contributions, but pastors carry the weight and burden of the church finances. They are eventually responsible for: church building loans (some of which are significant), church staff, utilities and other church commitments. For pastors of some small churches who are in full time ministry, they were already living hand to mouth before the coronavirus, now some

PRESSURE ON CHURCH FINANCES CONT'D

Where pastors could previously count on the offerings on church days, using past patterns to determine future trends. Some pastors have obligations due based on these trends, now this has been severely disrupted. They can no longer depend on contributions, just hope they will come in and wait and see if their hope materializes.

The reality of remote congregations is that pastors can no longer depend on the attentiveness of the audience in an inspired moment to get a church to give, they are speaking into a camera and hoping the members are listening. Some are fully conscious that some of their viewers skip and go directly to the sermon, others are distracted, doing many things while listening to church. Even where churches resume, many of the members are out of a job and some of the faithful are staying at home for fear; you are resuming with just a fraction. Then there is the added pressure of having to increase your welfare program, especially for faithful members in need, at a time when income is declining.

This is a clear opportunity to bring anxiety and fear into the hearts of anyone. It will bring out the humanity in some pastors and make them even bitter if they are not completely connected. Fear is sin and the fearful are among the first to be thrown into the lake of fire.

Job said, "The Lord gives and the Lord takes away; He still remains blessed."

This door of anxiety will give access to many familiar doors that have long since been closed to the enemy.

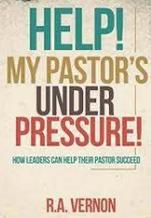

THEN THERE IS THE PRESSURE OF DISRUPTED PLANS AND PROGRAMS

I heard Michael Todd speak of how depressed he had been since the start of the coronavirus. You may underestimate the tremendous emotional pressure on ministers when regular schedule for church services is disrupted. When you invest so much in church not to be able to do church as usual.

When the services and routine you have invested in for years are derailed overnight, where the people you have organized to function in all areas of church ministry face a new scenario of ministry they are not prepared for, where training and discipleship through church services are disrupted, where your youth services, family services, children services, marriage counselling and all other services have to be postponed.

Can you imagine the pressure of not being able to bless babies or conduct baptisms or do marriages? This alone can be too much for many ministers. Please do not take it for granted. It is like starting at ground zero again. Can you imagine the pressure on older ministers who have no aptitude for change? Have you considered how hard it is when your style is meeting and greeting and personal interaction, not to have that anymore? Consider the pressure of having to meet so many expectations online or by phone; of losing the face to face element of counselling. For believers, mostly, it is a stay-at-home and wait for the church to get through to you. For leaders and pastors it is making it happen with less resources, volunteers and staff.

EXTREME PRESSURE ON CHURCH LEADERS IN THIS TIME

LOST INCOME FROM TRAVELLING

For many churches, the spiritual health of the congregation is built on the basis of conferences and special programs.

For many pastors, the only time they really earn something substantial is when they travel as guest speakers. The generosity of churches and members towards guest speakers are many times enormous. Travelling also is a spiritual adrenaline for some pastors. It bring them back to their churches with renewed life.

Some pastors have built a network on travelling, now they have to stay home. Some have been denied mission opportunities they have invested in. Many missionaries are stuck in other nations underfinanced or ignored and some organizations have had to stay home and wait. Some missionaries have invested their lives into mission and know nothing else. They sell everything. Can you imagine the pressure of losing all of this and what opportunities it gives to Satan to attack your pastors? Just too much thought on any of these is an opening for the devil to bring depression.

THE PRESSURE OF PREACHING TO A CAMERA AND EMPTY CHAIRS

It takes a different kind of anointing to preach to empty chairs and a camera. Some pastors will tell you they are not anointed for this. It is not easy for many to speak week after week without their usual amen, applause and shouts of encouragement from the congregation. Some come to church depressed from home situations and gain energy from the people they minister to. What happens when there are no people? It is like a death sentence.

THE PRESSURE OF DEATHS AND FUNERALS

Then there is the pressure of not being able to conduct funerals, especially of church members and associates. Can you imagine the pressure on pastors of losing active members and leadership, or even just families of members to the virus? Can you imagine the pressure of not being able to bury them?

THE PRESSURE OF SICK MEMBERS

Then there is the pressure of having members of the congregation sick with the coronavirus. Can you imagine the pressure on pastors of not being able to visit them or their families?

TEARS IN SECRET

You are not seeing your man or woman of God cry but they cry in secret. If you can be so down because you are out of a job, or you have a death or outbreak in the family, can you imagine the pressure on those who carry your pressure and bear your burdens?

The coronavirus is an unusual playground for the devil to attack ministers. As the Prophet Alph Lukau urged, please do not take it for granted; pray, pray, pray for your spiritual parents!

THE FALL OF JOHN GRAY IS A PRIME EXAMPLE. IT IS LIKELY HE WOULD HAVE BAND-AID THIS AREA OF WEAKNESS AND REMAINED STRONG IF HE WAS NOT CARRYING THE BURDEN OF ALL THE ABOVE. DEPRESSION IS NOT OF GOD AND FOR MANY SPIRITUAL PERSONS YOU SEEK NON-GOD SOLUTIONS, LIKE MOVIES OR PUSHING THE LINE JUST A LITTLE.

IS THIS THE CONCLUSION OF THE BOOK OF JOHN GRAY? WE WILL GET BACK TO THE REAL JUDGMENT OF HIS ACT AFTER THIS CWDS PASSAGE!

RESPONSE TO

PRESSURE ON CHURCH LEADERS

FATHER IN HEAVEN, YOUR NAME IS HOLY, DELIVER OUR PASTORS AND SPIRITUAL LEADERS FROM EVERY EVIL PLOT OF THE ENEMY TO USE THE OCCASION OF THE CORONA VIRUS TO ATTACK THEM. LEAD THEM NOT INTO TEMPTATION. I SPEAK RESOUNDING, VICTORY AFTER VICTORY INTO THEIR LIVES. THAT THEY WILL FIND PURPOSE AND MOTIVATION AS THEY ADJUST AND WILL KNOW THEY WERE BORN FOR THIS. THEY SHALL NOT BE IN DEBT. THE GRACE FOR STRONG RECOVERY IS RELEASED TO THEM ALL. AMEN.

O God Most High, I release the grace for strength into the spirits of my pastors (name) and leaders of my local church. Give them this day their daily bread; their personal release from heaven to meet their need. You promised to give them everything necessary for their own life and for their godly assignment. Feed them in the land of overflow and prepare for them a table in the presence of coronavirus. The devil loses, they win. My church shall not grow cold. Amen.

EZEKIEL 24—CWDS BIBLE WITH QUOTES & PRAYERS

EXTREME SACRIFICES OF MINISTERS AND THE LESSONS

I WILL take away your desire,
Even your love from before your eyes!
You shall show no consternation,
Neither shall you mourn nor cry;
There is a pot on the fire,
And scum is being boiled!"
He spoke to them in the morning,
And at evening his wife died;
Though it tore the prophet's heart with grief
And pained him much, he did not mourn,
For they would lose their sons and daughters;
What a way for them to learn!

EZEKIEL 24

¹Again, in the ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, The word of the Lord came to me, saying,
²"Son of man, write down the name of the day, this very day, The king of Babylon started sieged of Jerusalem this very day.
³And utter a parable to the rebellious house, and say to them,
Thus says the Lord God,
"Get a pot, set it on,
And also pour water into it.
⁴Gather the pieces of meat in it, Even every good piece, The thigh and the shoulder. Fill it with the best bones.
⁵Take the best of the flocks, And under it pile bones for fuel. Let it boil well, And let the bones simmer in it."
⁶Therefore says the Lord God:
"Woe to the bloody city filled with sin, To the pot whose scum is in it, And whose scum is not from it! Bring it out piece by piece, on which no lot has fallen.
⁷"For her blood is in her midst; She set it on top of a rock; She did not pour it on the ground, to cover it with dust.
⁸That it may raise up fury and take vengeance, I have set her blood on top of a rock, That it may not be covered."
⁹Therefore, thus says the Lord God,
"Woe to this bloody city!
I too will even make the pyre great.
¹⁰"Heap on wood, kindle the fire; Cook the meat well, mix in the spices, And let the bones be burned up.

¹¹Then set the empty pot on the coals, That it may become hot and its bronze may burn. That its filthiness may be melted in it, That its scum may be consumed.
¹²She has wearied herself with lies, And her great scum has not gone from her.
"Let her scum be in the fire!
¹³There is lewdness in your filthiness, and you were not cleansed. You will not be cleansed of your filthiness anymore, Until I have caused My fury to rest upon you.
¹⁴I, the Lord, have spoken it; It shall come to pass; and I will do it. I will not hold back, nor will I spare nor pity, Neither will I relent; According to your ways and your deeds they will judge you," says the Lord God."
¹⁵Also the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
¹⁶"Son of man, behold, with one stroke I will take from you the desire of your eyes; Yet you shall neither mourn nor weep, Neither shall your tears run down.
¹⁷Sigh in silence, make no mourning for the dead; Bind your turban on your head and put your shoes on your feet; Do not cover your lips and do not eat man's bread of sorrow."
¹⁸So I spoke to the people in the morning, and in the evening my wife died. And the next morning I did as I was commanded.
¹⁹And the people said to me,
"Will you not tell us what these things signify to us, that you behave in this manner?"
²⁰Then I replied, "The word of the Lord came to me, saying,
²¹"Speak to the house of Israel,
"Thus says the Lord God, 'Behold, I will profane My sanctuary, The excellency of your strength and your boasts, The desire of your eyes, the delight of your soul; And your sons and daughters whom you left behind shall fall by the sword.
²²'And you shall do as I have done; You shall not cover your lips nor eat man's bread of sorrow. Your shoes shall be on your feet,
²³And your turbans on your heads; You shall neither mourn nor weep, But you shall pine away in your iniquities, And mourn one to another,
²⁴Thus Ezekiel is a sign to you;

EZEKIEL 24—CWDS BIBLE WITH QUOTES & PRAYERS

EXTREME SACRIFICES OF MINISTERS AND THE LESSONS

According to all that he has done you shall do; And when this comes, you shall know that I am the Lord God.”

²⁵And you, son of man, Will it not be in the day when I take from them their strongholds, Their strength, their joy and their glory, the desire of their eyes, ‘And that on which they set their minds, Their sons and their daughters:

²⁶That on that day one who escapes will come to you, To let you hear it in your ears?

²⁷On that day your mouth shall be opened to him who has escaped;

You shall speak and no longer be mute.

Thus you shall be a sign to them,

And they shall know that I am the Lord.”

When the people are bad they can be restored, when the system is bad it must be removed; it is a melting pot that will collapse with everything in it.

Take the best of meat and place it in a poisoned pot, a pot of scums, and it becomes poisoned.

When you perceive a poisoned system; escape the system early before you are trapped in it; as Lot in Sodom, as Jerusalem surrounded by Babylon.

The world is a pot that is becoming increasingly poisoned; we are living in a melting pot; the end of the world is the culmination.

There are times the prophet does not only speak the prophecy; the prophet is the prophecy.

Who said serving God was easy? What we are assured of is that it is rewarding.

It is futile to enjoy the great gifts of God and not the great God of the gifts; it is futile to boast in His sanctuary and not the God the sanctuary represents.

When you profane yourself, who God loves so dearly, God will profane the thing you love that distracts you from Him.

It is time to understand that God holds no representation of Him on this earth as dearly as the people it is established to represent; keep the temple clean and preserved for the people and as the people; for you keep the people holy to keep the temple relevant and to keep it.

There are times when tears for the things you love will not be dried; they are dry, unable to come; totally sidelined by the fear and conflict at hand.

The prophet is your sign, not just your signature and boast; you may forsake his words but you can never forsake his pain and extreme sacrifice.

PRAYER POINTS

Mighty God, how can we stand before You; our laws, our systems, or nation is perverted; breathe revival to our nation. Amen.

God of wonders, remove the poison from the systems we are forced to raise our children in; cover them under Your blood and protect their hearts from diabolical influence. Amen.

Most High God, we are trapped, we have no place to turn; the entire world is a melting pot in these end times; we ask for the power to extend Your grace until the earth gives way to judgment. Amen.

Holy Spirit, open my spirit to what You are saying in these times. Amen.

Ah Lord God, release grace in abundance for everyone who sacrifices for the gospel; I speak protection, preservation and strength into their spirits. Amen.

The world is a pot that is becoming increasingly poisoned; we are living in a melting pot; the end of the world is the culmination.

There are times the prophet does not only speak the prophecy; the prophet is the prophecy. (Learn from what is happening to your leaders.)

Who said serving God was easy? What we are assured of is that it is rewarding.

Ah Lord God, release grace in abundance for everyone who sacrifices for the gospel; I speak protection, preservation and strength into their spirits. Amen.

JUDGING JOHN THE VILLAN

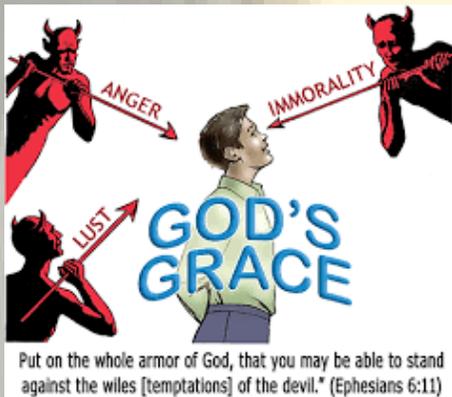

TAKE A LOOK AT PASTOR JOHN GRAY IN THIS PICTURE; WHOM DO YOU SEE?

You see a villain; a disappointment to the kingdom of God; an adulterer, albeit emotional, a pretender, a liar, a dishonor to his anointing; a disgrace to the church; a stumbling-block for so many people connected around the world. Makes you want to ask, is there anybody else? (Offended and falling away; will it be more than those who accepted the call to grace?)

SPEAK ABOUT GRACE; JOHN IS INDEED A BIG; RATHER TREMENDOUS DISGRACE BECAUSE THE ONLY PERSON WHO HAS THE RIGHTS TO JUDGE HIM IS THE ONE WHOSE GRACE HE DISRESPECTED AND DISHONORED, AND NO ONE CAN DENY THAT THE GRACE ON HIS LIFE (NO PAST-TENSE) IS BIG, RATHER, TREMENDOUS.

WHEN GOD SEES JOHN, WHAT DOES HE SEE?

Our God is into restoration (see our final scripture selection later in this magazine.)

Jesus restored Peter and made Him the head of a movement He started although he denied Him not once but three times in one day.

God restored Nebuchadnezzar after causing him to eat grass in his pride, to teach him a lesson of positioning and to whom the glory belongs.

God restored David and made him the standard bearer for Christ to be named with after he committed adultery and murder. God listened to Cain's pleas even after he killed a righteous man.

So when you see the failing Pastor John, whom do you see? You see me certainly, and you, if you are honest, daily living by grace.

You should see a servant of God who is struggling. You should see an important member of the same body you are a part of, Christ, wounded by our demonic enemies and hurting.

IF EVER THIS QUOTE IS RELEVANT IT IS TO THE BODY OF CHRIST (ALL SOLDIERS IN THE ARMY OF GOD). IT IS EVEN MORE POTENT TO US THAN TO THE US ARMY.

NO MAN LEFT BEHIND; OR SHOULD WE SAY NOT ONE MEMBER OF OUR BODY LEFT BEHIND.

IF THE HAND GOES TO THE HOSPITAL THE ENTIRE BODY GOES WITH IT. IF IT PAINS... BEGIN TO GET ON YOUR KNEES AND SHED THOSE TEARS...WE ARE ALL PAINING SPIRITUALLY. THAT IS THE REAL AND ONLY REASON YOU ARE SO UPSET. EMBRACE IT AND ADDRESS IT CORRECTLY. LET YOUR PAIN OUT BEFORE GOD AND SEE HIM PERFECT THIS SITUATION.

JUDGING JOHN THE VILLAN OR LOVING REV. JOHN THE WOUNDED?

THE WORD OF PASTOR GRAY AS HE TAKES A HIATUS FROM MINISTRY

From his confession and final sermon on August 30:

“Live holy, serve God, do right, stop gossiping; stop waiting for other people to fail so that you can feel better. May the body of Christ grow up and may we reflect the restorative power of Jesus on the beach instead of trying to kill our wounded. Everybody has something that they are not proud of and it is only by God’s grace that the thing you are not proud of is not exposed to the world. So let my life be an example that God can deal with you very quickly. If it is your turn you will be very much like Peter and not like Judas.

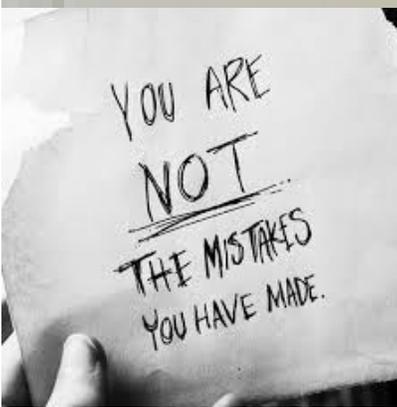

I heard Dr. AR Bernard say something. The only difference between Peter and Judas is that they were both at the dinner but Judas left early. He went out quickly and Jesus continued speaking.

Don’t leave this work early. If you have walked with us through all the things we have walked through, don’t leave early. God is with us, He is with this church, He is with this staff. Ask the Holy Spirit. Continue to be generous. If this church is your home, then fight for me like I would fight for you right now. Maintain this commitment in tithes and offering so we can continue to serve this present age.

Don’t leave early, God is not finished. Not with me, not with my family, not with this church, not with you. If you have found yourself in a broken moment, stuck and afraid that you will be found out, go ahead and tell on yourself. Let God handle it now and heal it in your heart so you can go ahead and be free. Don’t be afraid of what people will say. Even if your past was yesterday as of right now its over and its under the blood. The blood of Jesus is available to you right now. And in a way I have never said it before, I say it today, the doors of the church are open. If you ever need Jesus, He is available to you. His blood is available to heal you and cleanse you and restore you.

Pastor Gray then led an emotional sinners prayer, directed at himself and from himself to all the others who needed it.

I want to thank all the pastors and leaders who have by their life example to show me what it means to be human but not allow their humanity to define the limits of their calling. I am grateful for everyone of you who by the life you live show me, don’t give up here, get up, be better, leave a legacy.

This is not about the offering, it is about a moment that I hope will change the conversation from condemnation to vindication, to justification, restoration. Go after it with all your heart. God is with you, He is for you and if He is disciplining you, it is not because He is mad at You. It is because He loves you.

JOHN GRAY IN HIS PARTING WORDS REFERRED TO THIS PERSON WHO HAS BEEN CALLING CERTAIN LEADERS CHARLATANS FOR ADVANTAGE AND WAITING FOR THEM TO FALL. HE ENDORSED THE PERSECUTED CHURCH IN AFRICA.

It is Pastor Alph Lukau, one of those persecuted pastors targeted by this person Pastor John referenced, who said, “Some people are just waiting to see you fall.”

THERE HAS NEVER BEEN A LEADER WHO IS GOING THROUGH A MOMENT THAT I KNOW ABOUT THAT I DON’T GET ON MY KNEES AND TRAVAIL FOR THEM.

TODAY WE REVISIT A STORY IN THE KINGDOM MINDSET OF WORK WE DID IN VOLUME 5 FOR WITH WHAT IS HAPPENING WITH OUR MINISTERS TYPIFIED BY PASTOR JOHN GRAY, IT IS MORE RELEVANT THAN EVER.

IN THE NEXT PUBLICATION WE WILL ADDRESS THOSE WHO MAKE A LIFE FROM PREYING ON THE WEAKNESSES OF MINISTERS PERCEIVED OR REAL. WE WILL SHOW THEM BY FACES. My heart breaks with pity and terror for them. Our Final Bible reading for today directly addresses these people. When you read the selected passage from the CWDS Bible, Ezekiel you will understand why.

PASTOR JOHN'S WEAK-NESS AND RECOVERY

LOVING AND FORGIVING GOD, SOAK OUR BROTHER, PASTOR JOHN GRAY, IN THE BLOOD OF JESUS. LET THE BLOOD ANSWER EVERYONE WHO WILL POINT A FINGER AT HIM, FROM THE KINGDOM OF THE ACCUSER OR HIS AGENTS ON EARTH. WE STOUTLY STAND BETWEEN HIM AND EVERY ARROW DIRECTED AT HIM IN HIS WEAKNESS. WE INTERCEDE UNTIL HE GAINS THE STRENGTH TO ROAR AGAIN LIKE PETER WHEN HE DENIED YOU, LIKE DAVID WHEN HE FELL. PASTOR JOHN SHALL NOT DIE BUT LIVE AND DECLARE YOUR WORKS, JESUS. WE LOVE OUR BROTHER DEARLY. AMEN.

Holy and Righteous God, my Father, forgive me for every thought of judgment that has entered my heart in relation to any other believer who has fallen. Have mercy on me for ever lifting a thought against any leader of the church who is blemished. Let me be the first to rush in and bind the wounds. Let me nurse them in intercession until they are fully restored. Let me pain as if I am the one who is wounded on the battlefield. For indeed, it was I. Your body was pierced of which I am inextricably connected. Amen.

 "Work huh! Distractions! what was that assignment father gave me?"

He could hear the words echo in his head.

"Son, tell me what happened to the casual and the distracted in the Aaronic priesthood."

His thought reentered the closet of his reflections.

It was then that he walked in on them in a moment of history.

"It was worth it; it was well worth it Abihu," Nadab said to His younger brother.

"Did you see the glory of the Lord coming on all the people?"

"That was exhilarating. Did you see the fire coming down and consuming the sacrifice?"

"I saw it alright. I did not know that God would do that! And the people, I will never get rid of the sight of them shouting and falling on their faces."

"I could see that again any day."

"Do you realize how much that magnified our office? They fear and respect us even more now. We can do anything we want."

"What do you mean that it was worth it Nadab? The sacrifice. That was work as it always is. I sweated a little."

"Me too. Being a priest is hard work. We are butchers, we are lifting weight, we are cleaning the meat and cutting to specifications. Yes and we lay them out as specified also."

"And we are dancers. We wave part of the offering before God."

"Well father sprinkles the blood which too is work, and we also have to hold it for him."

"And we are sanitizers, we dispose of the blood."

"Yes and we are intercessors and exhorters we bless the people, even when we are tired."

"Do you realize brother, everything we do is intercession. The offering itself is intercession. Our proclamation too."

"Sigh. Intercession is work, real hard, dedicated, committed work."

Abihu wiped the sweat from his face as he said this.

"It is, but now we know it can be very entertaining and exhilarating also. I will never forget how the people shouted and fell on their faces as the glory of God came down. We have the power to bring the glory of God to the people."

"Sigh! That part I could do again, anytime."

There was a moment of silence as the brothers looked at each other. Then as if sharing the same mind they said simultaneously, "Why not. Let's do it."

"Nadab was silent as something like a hand of fear gripped his heart."

He shrugged it off and shook hands with Abihu as he said, "We will certainly do it very soon!"

Nadab winked at his brother and said, "All day work and no play makes ministry a dull game."

"Ministry is work, but it can be much easier if we mix it with entertainment. Work is much more doable if we mix in some entertainment."

"Yes, even if we lose our strict focus."

"You know brother, Moses forgot to include this when he wrote the script for our service. He only wrote about the work."

THE KINGDOM MINDSET OF WORK

AN EVERY BELIEVER, EVERYDAY KINGDOM MANUAL

The punishing sun looked down on the scorched remains of the two priests laying there in the temple. Aaron's heart pierced him as he looked at his sons. They had offered strange fire to the Lord by sacrificing without the necessary protocols stipulated. The fire of the Lord came as they desired by it consumed them and not the offering. God rejected the offering. Aaron's emotions were fluctuating between his duty as priest to the God whom he loved so dearly and these sons he raised in his own footsteps. He could not shake the guilt that they died in the office he served, the only occupation he taught them.

He could see their hesitance from time to time as they embraced the work of ministry. He could not escape the enthusiasm in their faces when they saw the glory of God come down in response to their service. He knew he had them forever then, fully dedicated and with wholesome hearts.

Well...so he thought.

Now he looked at them and his heart sank with the sun as a large cloud floated over its glorious parade.

He saw them being dragged out by their uncles, brothers of their mother, with their tunics as Moses commanded.

He could hear Moses in his numbed subconscious say to the effect that the kingdom mindset of work made no provision for mourning for the dead above duty to the living.

In fact, Moses was angry with them for not eating the sin offering in accordance with the service ritual for the people.

Moses adjusted to the heart of the moment when they explained the difficulty in offering sin offering for the people when their sons and brothers had no one to offer for their sins. They experienced the punishing edge of the sword they dutifully shielded the people from in daily service. Moses conceded that they could take the day but, just that afternoon.

The work of ministry would resume in its dedicated detail by Aaron and his sons the following day.

Moses himself grieved for his nephews but he had long surrendered to the reality, "The work of ministry must proceed beyond personal pain or problems in the moment. Instead personal pain should serve as a reminder of the urgency of the many lives at risk. There is no room for selfishness in the kingdom; it is all about selfless service.

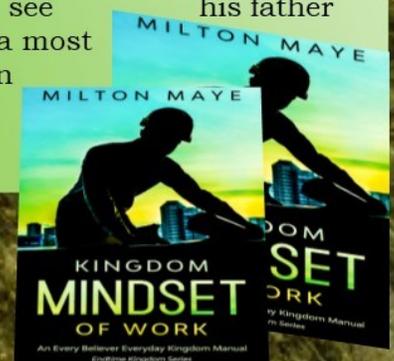

My nephews sought entertainment instead of purposeful duty. They were to present and represent the people to God for the salvation of their souls, or rather, the atonement of their sins."

John concluded in the moment, "When we forsake our mandate by Christ to satisfy our lust or ignore our mandate to do so it is wrong. When we forsake our mandate because of personal problems it is selfish, self-promoting and an ignorance of the urgency of the times. It is also an ignorance of the unusual opportunity to express faith in the moment to give God glory and get Him to move on our behalf. We seek the kingdom and He solves our problems.

We must save the entertainment for heaven," John muttered. "Right now, the night comes, rather it is upon us, when no one will be able to work.

Father, breathe into the hearts of believers the urgency of the times. Impregnate us all with the kingdom mindset of work."

A dog barked in the distance as John went in to the room to check on his father for a final time that evening. His heart warmed to see his father fast asleep with a most peaceful smile on his face.

EZEKIEL 25—CWDS BIBLE WITH QUOTES & PRAYERS
GOD'S WRATH ON THOSE WHO REJOICE AT THE FALL OF HIS SERVANTS

A PEOPLE of God's heritage,
 But He has cast them off;
 Do you say, 'Aha,'
 Clap your hands and laugh?
 Do you stamp your feet and rejoice?
 Therefore this is what the Lord says,
 "I am against you, Moab, Ammon and Philistia;
 Your smile shall be erased!"

EZEKIEL 25

¹The word of the Lord came again to me, saying,
²"Son of man, set your face against the Ammonites, And prophesy against them.
³Say to the Ammonites, 'Hear the word of the Lord God!
 Thus says the Lord God: "Because you said, 'Aha,' against My sanctuary when it was profaned, And against the land of Israel when it was desolate, And against the house of Judah when they went into captivity, ⁴Behold, therefore, I will deliver you as a possession to the men of the East, And they shall set their palaces in you And make their dwellings in your midst; They shall eat your fruit and they shall drink your milk.
⁵And I will make Rabbah a stable for camels, And Ammon a resting place for flocks. Then you shall know that I am the Lord."
⁶For thus says the Lord God:
 "Because you clapped your hands, stamped your feet, And rejoiced in your heart with all your disdain for the land of Israel, ⁷Behold, I will stretch out My hand against you And deliver you as plunder to the nations. I will cut you off from the peoples, and I will cause you to perish from the countries where you are brought; I will destroy you and you shall know that I am Lord."

⁸Thus says the Lord God,
 "Because Moab and Seir say,
 'Behold, the house of Judah is like all other nations,'
⁹"Therefore, behold, I will clear the land of Moab of cities,
 Of the cities on its frontier, the glory of the country,
 Bethjeshimoth, Baal-meon and Kiriathaim.
¹⁰To the men of the East I will give it as a possession, together with the Ammonites,
 So that the Ammonites will be not remembered among the nations.
¹¹And I will execute judgments upon Moab; And they shall know that I am the Lord."
¹²Thus says the Lord God,
 "Because of what Edom did against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, And has greatly offended by exacting revenge on them," ¹³Therefore says the Lord God, "I will stretch out My hand against Edom, Cut off man and beast from it, And make it desolate from Teman; Dedan shall fall by the sword.
¹⁴"I will lay my revenge on Edom by the hand of My people Israel, That they may do in Edom according to My anger and My fury; And they shall know My vengeance," says the Lord God.
¹⁵Thus says the Lord God:
 "Because the Philistines dealt vengefully and took vengeance with a spiteful heart taken vengeance,
 To destroy because of the old hatred,
¹⁶Therefore," says the Lord God,
 "I will stretch out My hand against the Philistines
 And I will cut off the Cherethites and destroy the remnant of the seacoasts.
¹⁷And I will execute great vengeance on them with furious rebukes; And they shall know that I am the Lord, When I lay My vengeance upon them."

GOD'S WRATH ON THOSE WHO REJOICE AT THE FALL OF HIS SERVANTS

CWDS Bible Quotes

God's correction of His people is not a basis for your expression of disgust for them or satisfaction in their demise, or when the object of His wrath is satisfied you will become the subject of His wrath.

Harsh correction excites no parent and no parent invites outside intervention in family matters however justified the correction was; it irritates them.

Correcting your children is not a game, a performance or a show, it is a painful and regretful affair; it angers you to see others clap their hands and celebrate what pains you so much.

When you see God's people failing, strengthen them; when you see believers and ministers in persecution, bless them; when you see them destroyed even for their own failures, mourn for them; for you will mourn for your own sake if you celebrate.

Your own faults and failures do not justify you celebrating the failures and punishment of others; it accelerates you to the front of the line to be sifted.

What qualifies you to point a finger at what is happening in the house of God? Be careful to ensure your own house can stand; there may be nothing left to point a finger at when you are fingered.

Never intervene in the destructive judgment of God's people but to help; do not cast a word, a stone, a finger or a hand at them in any way to increase their pain; their God will deliver you to them and place you at their mercy.

Let old hatred and bitter feuds go; you escalate it to a different level when you hit at God's people in their defeat; God will respond from His level with furious rebukes.

PRAYER POINTS

Marvelous God, let every voice raised against believers or the church be silenced; place it in the hearts of men to pray for those who are in the embrace of judgment. Amen.

Holy Father, give parents the grit to discipline children as they deserve and everyone else the wisdom to step away. Amen.

Righteous God, You must justly correct us but it breaks Your heart; I pray for restoration for every believer whom You have released to judgment, in the name of Jesus.

Let wisdom restrain every person celebrating the persecution or failure of Your people. Amen.

God of love, baptize believers with the spirit of love to mourn for each other and to proactively intervene on their behalf. Amen.

Let every unrighteous heart lifting a hand or their voices against the people of God, receive Your fiery correction, in the name of Jesus.

Harsh correction excites no parent and no parent invites outside intervention in family matters however justified the correction was; it irritates them.

Correcting your children is not a game, a performance or a show, it is a painful and regretful affair; it angers you to see others clap their hands and celebrate what pains you so much.

The Caribbean Worship and Devotional Study Bible Foreworded by the Late Dr. Myles Munroe. This Project was titled Complete Caribbean Bible, by Dr. Myles Munroe in 2009.

THE FOREWORD:

This erudite, eloquent and immensely thought-provoking work gets to the heart of one of the deepest contradictions within our culture-the contemporizing of the Word of God in the first complete Caribbean Bible.

This is indispensable reading for anyone who wants to live life above the norm.

This is a profound authoritative work which spans the wisdom of the ages and yet breaks new ground in its approach and will possibly become a classic in this and the next generation.

This exceptional work by Milton Maye is one of the most profound, practical, principle-centered approaches to this timely issue and brings a fresh breath of air that captivates the heart, engages the mind and inspires the spirit of the reader.

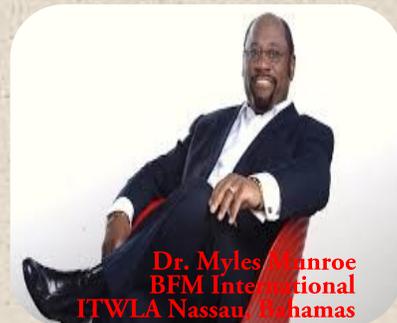

The author's ability to leap over complicated theological and metaphysical jargon and reduce complex theories to simple practical principles that the least among us can understand is amazing.

This work will challenge the intellectual while embracing the laymen as it dismantles the mysteries of the soul search of mankind and delivers the profound in simplicity.

Milton's approach to the daily application of scripture awakens in the reader the untapped inhibitors that retard our personal development and his anecdotes empower us to rise above these self-defeating, self limiting factors to a life of exploits in spiritual and mental advancement.

The author also integrates into each chapter the time-tested precepts giving each principle a practical application to life making the entire process people-friendly. Every sentence of this book is pregnant with wisdom and I enjoyed the mind-expanding experience of this exciting book.

I admonish you to plunge into this ocean of knowledge and watch your life change for the better.

CAN THE MARK OF THE BEAST BE TAKEN INVOLUNTARILY?

THIS QUESTION WAS PUT TO GOTQUESTIONS.ORG

Answer: The mark of the beast is some kind of seal that followers of the Antichrist will take in allegiance to him. The prophecy of Revelation 13:16–17 says that the image of the beast “forced all people, great and small, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on their right hands or on their foreheads, so that they could not buy or sell unless they had the mark, which is the name of the beast or the number of its name.”

We don't know what this mark will look like. A while ago, some thought it was a stamp or tattoo of the number 666. More recently, people thought it might be a barcode. Now a popular speculation is that the mark of the beast will be an implanted microchip that allows people to access their digital currency. But we honestly have no way of knowing what form the mark of the beast will take.

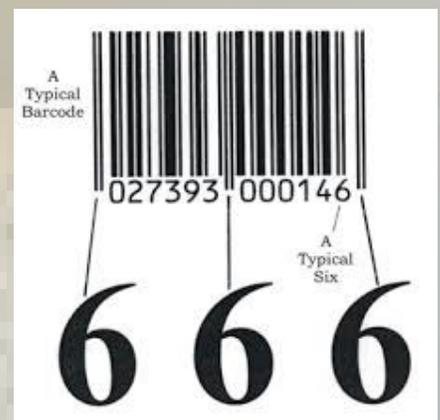

Some people fear that they have already taken the mark of the beast. They may have blasphemed God at some point or made some impulsive statement of allegiance to the Antichrist. They may worry about the chip in their credit card. Others have been told that their act of worshiping the Lord on Sunday instead of the Sabbath constitutes accepting the mark of the beast. There is one significant reason why it is impossible to get the mark of the beast now:

THE MARK OF THE BEAST DOES NOT EXIST YET.

A literal reading of Revelation and other end-times prophecy in the Bible shows that there is a schedule for the end-times events. Daniel prophesied of seventy weeks (seventy sets of seven years) that mark the time of God's interaction with Israel. Sixty-nine of those weeks have passed since Daniel's writing. The final week will be what we call the tribulation, which is when the Antichrist, or the beast, will rise to power. This ruler will join together ten nations (Daniel 7:24–25; Revelation 17:7) and make a deceptive treaty with Israel (Daniel 9). The mark of the beast cannot exist until the beast himself is in power during the tribulation.

Another reason believers in Jesus Christ should not fear getting the mark of the beast now is the rapture of the church. In the rapture, Jesus will take all believers, living and dead, from the earth (1 Thessalonians 4:13–18; 1 Corinthians 15:50–54). Although people will still come to know Christ after the rapture, all those who trust Jesus before the rapture will be taken to be with the Lord. According to pretribulationism, believers who live in the church age will never have an opportunity to receive the mark of the beast.

So, there is nothing anyone can do today to get, take, or receive the mark of the beast. Implanted chips, bar codes, tattoos, blaspheming, saying out loud, “I follow the Antichrist and accept the mark of the beast”—none of these will give you the mark of the beast. The mark of the beast cannot exist without the beast/Antichrist demanding it.

WE MUST LEARN TO SAY NO TO EVERY DEMONIC PROPOSITION

666 CANNOT BE TAKEN INVOLUNTARILY

As we debunk the fear of 666 we want to take a step back and examine how we respond to Satanic propositions. The fear of the Lake of Fire eternally with Satan, all his demons and the Beast should be your greatest fear now. Just as the mark of the beast, it is your reality if you say yes to today's subtle and not so subtle demonic propositions. What is true about now and the era of 666 is that the game will not change, just the method, the devil is after your soul.

REASONS NOT TO FEAR 666 IN THIS ERA

The mark of the beast requires the presence of the beast.

The mark will be on the right hand or on the forehead. Revelations 13:16.

You will have the power to consciously refuse.

If you accept you go into the Lake of Fire with the devil, his demons and the beast you chose to follow.

Those who refuse the mark will live forever with the Lord.

The Pressure on the church and ministers in particular in these end times is nothing like the pressure on believers when the new world order is enforced but it typifies it.

No one can deny that it is testing the readiness of the church for the pressure that will be on believers.

THE MARK OF THE DEVIL TODAY

Temptation is on now in earnest just as persecution will be fiery then. It is easy to slip into complacency now because the dark spiritual world has not manifested into a physical presence as it will then. We must note however that the end result of those who accept the mark of the beast and those who accept the mark of sin will be the same. (If we do not bear the mark of Christ in our bodies we have the mark of sin and death; the mark of Satan.)

Those who compromise in these times must be very careful; they are likely to be among those who will compromise when the real pressure comes. At least they typify those who will compromise then.

The Order of the word will never change.

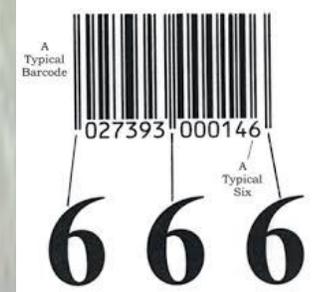

THIS IS YOUR NEW WORLD ORDER:

Maintain your faith; do not compromise; fear God; do not yield to temptation; love your enemies; persevere in prayer; eat the word of God, be faithful; what I say to one I say to all in every era, watch! Again love the word of God and serve God as if nothing else in matter matters, for of a truth, coronavirus has taught us, nothing is permanent or secure but your faith in God. The reign of the beast will teach us there is nothing else in life to hang on to but your faith in God;

IT IS THE ONLY DEFINITION OF LIFE.

My advice to those in this era and in the era of the mark of the beast;

LET YOUR FEAR BE THE FEAR OF GOD ONLY AND LET IT MOTIVATE YOU TO RIGHTEOUS LIVING, RESOLUTE FAITH AND ABSOLUTE SACRIFICE IN SELF-RESTRAINT.

ALL WISE AND ALL KNOWING GOD, BY THE POWER OF THE HOLY GHOST, BURN THE FEAR OF YOU INTO THE HEART OF EVERY BELIEVER TODAY. HELP US ALL TO FOCUS ON THE PRIORITY OF OUR RELATIONSHIP WITH YOU THAT WILL KEEP US IN ANY AGE. I CALL EVERY BELIEVER TO THE RESOLVE TO RESIST SIN; STRIVE AGAINST SIN, EVEN IF IT DRAINS YOUR BLOOD, JUST AS CHRIST DID ON THE CROSS. LET US ALL REFUSE TO PLACE OUR MIND ABOVE OUR MASTER, BUT HELP US TO PERSEVERE IN FAITH AND CARRY OUR CROSS AS DEAD, FOR OUR SOULS AND THE SOULS OF MEN. AMEN.

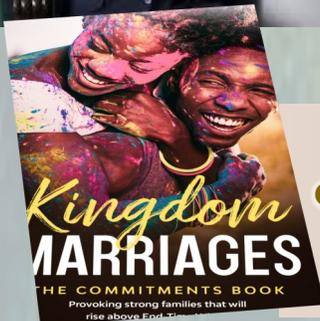

Righteous Father, I will fear You. Let Your kingdom come let Your will be done in my life and in the life of my household as it is in heaven. For those whose sins are manifest early, we thank You for Your grace and gaze in awe of You at Your merciful act of kindness for exposing and incision to heal and to restore, as You did with king David. For those who are not manifest until judgment, we extend a bitter cry for mercy; remove complacency. Search my heart, O God; start with me. Amen.

INTRODUCTION

The devil is on the warpath like a rabid infected mad dog. He gnashes his teeth at the church and tears apart anyone he finds he can devour. He also wages war against another institution he knows has the power to withstand him. In the recent Covid-19 pandemic, the church globally was rendered dysfunctional in the aspect of its standard gathering. Ministry was redirected to the homes. The devil knows that strong homes are the final battle lines even if the churches should fail or persecution should scatter believers.

He is raging mad at families even more in these end-times than ever before. He is absolutely livid at Godly families.

There is no room for complacency in marriages; the devil is constant and active, never sleeping. He fights a merciless war, tirelessly looking for openings and a very strategic war; patiently

His great agitation that ignites his fiery hatred is that he knows his time is short. There is no room for presumption in marriage, just proactive commitment to daily activate the principles that make strong marriages. The resurgence of the Jezebel spirit with greater ferocity in these end times is another reason for couples and families to be even more watchful. This spirit has no rules. It takes down its prey in the homes and in the church. It is aggressive, manipulative, seductive and pathological. It is cold and heartless and has no compassion or love for anything. The devil also understands strong families have a greater chance of survival against his impending end-times assault. He knows if he divides the family he could easily target each member separately and destroy them. Marriage in these end-times cannot be ordinary nor can its success or survival be left to chance. It must be determined, principled and intentional. The devil understands that if he divides a marriage, he has access to both the man and woman if there is residual bitterness. It also removes the covering guard of the couple from over the children. He will attempt to destroy them and divert their destiny. Where the spirit of Jezebel is in operation, it will use the spouse it possesses to sacrifice their children on the guise of doing good, but in personal gratification or revenge. These are the days when marriages cannot be taken casually. This book is a commitment rule book for all marriages. It walks the reader through commitments to make and to keep that will not just keep the marriage strong constantly, but rousing and resilient. Kingdom Marriages seeks to break the marriage vows down into daily commitments.

INSPIRATION PAGE A HEART FOR THE DYING

WE CANNOT BE CASUAL IN THE MIDST OF A DYING WORLD!

WOMAN FROM THE UNITED STATES ENTERS A BLOODIED BULLET- RIDDELED CAR TO WITNESS TO TWO MEN WHO WERE SHOT UP AND DYING.

Here is her story as she shared with her main church, Alleluia Ministries, continents away, by video.

God bless you AMI family, I'm Renee T'abreu in the United States of America and I first wanna give honor to my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, Pastor Alph Lukau, Bishop Celeste Lukau and our mother of Zion here in the United States, Pastor Carol Lee. I thank God for all of them staying on their knees for countless hours for us and continually covering us in prayer. My testimony goes back to the PM07. We had 77 declarations at that time and on day number 2, I stayed up until about 4am that morning and I began to confess the confessions again at 4am. I was pushed to do certain strategic things throughout that night and then the very next morning I was compelled to make an errand that I wouldn't normally make.

On my way home from making that errand, I was at a stoplight and I was supposed to proceed through the stoplight but I didn't move right away. The car behind me blew the horn for me to go and when I decided to go, at that moment, three cars flew through the opposite light speeding at probably a hundred plus mph. At that time I realized they almost took my life. They could have but they couldn't. I yelled "Jesus!", and as I yelled that they flew by so fast that when I proceeded to make that left turn behind them, they were getting on the same expressway that I was getting on.

At that moment the first car of the three crashed and flipped. So I figured since they were speeding and racing one another, the other two cars are probably gonna come back and help him. So as I'm driving slowly behind I realize the two cars did turn around but they didn't come back to help. The second car turned around and started shooting at the car that flipped, then they left. The third car also had turned around and began to shoot at the car that flipped. They riddled the car with so many bullets I knew the people inside were dead, there was no way they could've survived. However, I began to yell, "Jesus help them save them God! Please Lord save them!" And as I'm praying and I'm praying in the Holy Spirit, I keep praying and asking God to help them.

The two cars that were chasing the first car, they left and then I decided to drive closer to the car that flipped along with a few others who were behind me. We got out of our cars and we ran to the car and they were yelling inside, "We've been shot! Help us, help us!" The people on the outside kept saying, "Just be still emergency is on their way, they're coming to help you."

One of the guys outside the car decided to try to pry the door open and he pulled it open and the guy inside was crying, blood everywhere, glass everywhere. And then I decided to jump inside the car. At that moment a lady outside the car yelled, "Ma'am you don't have a mask on, why are you getting so close?" And I said, "I don't need a mask, I have Jesus Christ. He is my mask, He's my covering." So I begin to talk to the young man and pray for him, I didn't know how badly hurt he was. I just know that blood was everywhere. So I asked him did he know Jesus. He said, "Yes".

And I said, "Well we're going to ask the Lord to forgive us for our sins and then we're going to ask Him to come into our life right now because right now you're alive and He spared you and you could be dead right now but you're alive."

He said, "Yes ma'am." So I said, "Do you wanna receive Him?" and he said, "Yes ma'am."

INSPIRATION PAGE A HEART FOR THE DYING

And I said, "Well listen to what I'm saying and repeat." And so we began to go through the salvation prayer. So while we're going through the prayer he says, "It hurts so bad, it hurts me it hurts."

And I said, "Every time it hurts I want you to yell Jesus. Just call on His name, Jesus." So the young man just kept saying, "Jesus, Jesus!" Then he said, "I can't feel my legs, my legs they're numb. I can't feel them!"

I said, "But it's okay you're alive."

So he said, "Yes ma'am." And I said, "And because you're alive I want you to thank God for your life." He said, "Thank You God for my life, thank You for my life God!"

He just started to thank God. Then I proceeded to leave outta that side of the car and I walked around to the other side of the car to the other young man that was also injured.

He wasn't as receptive of Jesus as the first guy. So every time I prayed and I began to pray in the Holy Ghost and I began to say the name Jesus, he started to yell at me and tell me, "Don't do that, don't say that! You're hurting me, you're hurting me!"

And I said, "No I won't stop." I said, "Right now you owe God everything. He spared your life, you're still alive. You're going to hear the name of Jesus."

And so he began to say, "Please ma'am please, stop it stop it!"

And I said, "No I won't." And I kept praying. I said, "I won't stop until you receive Him."

And he said, "Yes ma'am, okay okay stop it! I receive Him! I receive Him!"

And I said, "Say His name." And he said, "Jesus!"

And I said, "Amen." And so I prayed the prayer of salvation with him as well and then that's when it hit me, my life could've been taken just about three times within ten minutes. The first when they sped past me and almost hit me at that stoplight, the second when I got inside that car. Those gentlemen did not know whether I was the perpetrator or not, shooting at them. They didn't know. They could've had weapons and shot back. The third time was when we were there trying to comfort them until authorities came, the other men could've come back and shot all the witnesses that were standing around but God... but God, He spared my life once again.

My God spared my life. Every single 77 declarations that I said was in my favor on that day. We were only in day number three for PM07. Every single night my husband and I gave PM07 and I want to say that if it were not for the Lord on my side, I wouldn't be here today. I thank God that when I reached my home that afternoon, I ran to my altar and I gave God praise and glory for sparing my life once again because it didn't have to be that way. I laid across my altar and I just thank God for one more day. I thank God for the men that were able to hear the gospel of Jesus Christ through the boldness He'd given me on that day because Renee wouldn't have done it within her own strength. But I thank God for AMI ministries and the boldness and the courage that I've got through being connected to the umbilical cord of Alph Lukau. I thank God for the altar that I'm connected to. AMI for life. Amen, God bless you.

REMINDING OURSELVES OF 2020 PROPHECIES OF WORSE TIMES AHEAD

Speaking in February 2020 at 2020 Prophets' Conference, prophet, Bro. Sadhu Sundar Selvaraj shared a very disturbing vision he had on the very day of the conference. Later in this magazine we will share a brief profile of Bro Sadhu and the other speakers at this conference.

BRO. SADHU'S REVELATION:

Now on the 20th of February 2020, I was called to come and wait at the presence of the Lord at ten in the morning and as I was waiting on the Lord, I was taken before His holy presence in the heavenly realm. As soon as I came and stood before the Lord Jesus, He looked at me and He said, 'The Father God wants to talk with you. You have an important message to carry back. Come with me now.' Then three times lightning and thunder came! So when the form of the Father God came and stood before me, so now I'm going to tell you exactly as how I received it from the Father God.

Another great wind is going to sweep all over the world, and when He spoke the word "wind", it was made for me to know this. Another great wind is going to sweep this whole world. The world is shaken with fear and trembling because of coronavirus but the word of the Lord came to say, another worse than coronavirus is going to come. When that comes, it will make this coronavirus look like child's play. So when this great wind comes, it will sting people like a hornet's sting. When a hornet stings a person, a person feels hot with fire-like sensation and swelling like boils appear on their body. In the same manner, when this wind stings a person that person will feel hot like fire over them and their temperature will rise above 100 degrees Fahrenheit, above 38 degrees Centigrade. So the feelings will be hot like fire burning all over their body and fever will shoot up in their bodies more than 100 degrees and boils will develop all over their faces and bodies especially in the chest area. These are the physical symptoms when this virus stings. Now doctors and scientists will be baffled and perplexed at not being able to discover at all any medicine or vaccine for this.

Catastrophic Events
of 2020 In Advance of November 2020

Pastor Dana Coverstone, Living Word Ministries, 173 Living Word Drive, Burkesville, KY

I saw fighting in the streets, I saw people pummeling one another. I saw businesses shuttered and shut up, I saw schools closed, I saw school rooms with cobwebs hanging in them and like things like papers falling off the wall and posters. It felt like no one had been in them for months. I saw banks, bank buildings with the roof being taken off and looked almost like alien abduction because money was just flying through the roof into some type of a vacuum cleaner, that sounds kind of strange, but I was watching wealth just being taken. I saw politicians in back rooms making deals with people, patting people on the back and laughing and smiling and smirking. I saw monuments, I saw Washington DC burning, I saw Washington DC blazing, I saw fires everywhere, I saw people being rounded up. I saw Chinese and Russian soldiers on the ground and the Russian soldiers were telling the Chinese soldiers to go and pick up these people, round up these people, secure this quadrant, secure this area. I saw blue helmets of the UN, I saw military things taking place. I also saw no sign of President Trump, I saw no sign of leadership in Washington DC but the vultures that I had seen were now like gargoyles and they were ten feet off the ground, ten to fifteen feet off the ground and they were just attacking people mercilessly. I saw people hiding in their homes and garages, I saw churches being burned, I saw homes being burned. I saw absolute chaos and the fist punch on the November of 2020 is what got my attention. Then I heard the words again, "Brace yourself, brace yourself."

GUN VIOLENCE IS INCREASING IN THE USA RELATING TO THE PROTESTS BUT IT IS NOTHING COMPARED TO THE SEVERITY OF THESE PROPHECIES; WE ALSO WATCH THE FIRES IN PORTLAND.

IF THESE PROPHECIES ARE NOT FULFILLED DOES IT MAKE THESE MEN FALSE PROPHETS?

NO! IT MAKES YOU A TRUE BELIEVER FOR YOU PRAYED.

IF GOD GIVES YOU A WORD, BE OBEDIENT, RELEASE IT; LET GOD BE GOD.

NEXT ISSUE WE WILL SHARE THE CWDS BIBLE'S TAKE ON JONAH'S RESPONSE TO HIS OWN FAILED PROPHECY.

RESPONSE TO

2020 PROPHECIES OF WORSE TIMES

GOD OF GRACE AND ENDURING MERCIES, DESCEND UPON BELIEVERS IN THESE TIMES AND LET YOUR PROTECTIVE COVERING SHIELD THEM FROM THE DESTRUCTIVE PATH OF THE ENEMY. GIVE US PEACE AGAINST THE WIND OF THESE EVIL TIMES. MIGHTY GOD, REMOVE THESE PLAGUES FROM US. TURN AWAY THE STING OF THESE PROPHECIES AND LET THEM NOT MANIFEST. LET HUMAN HEARTS BE CHANGED. LET NATIONS CRY OUT FOR REPENTANCE. THEN TURN AWAY FROM YOUR WRATH AND SPARE US.

My Father and my God, if You should count iniquities, who can stand? Wash me from all my sins and forgive me for anything in me that might have contributed to Your anger with the nations. Mighty God, in your merciful kindness, breathe provision for my family in times of lack, safety in times of distress, deliverance in times of disaster; make my household precious in Your sight in the midst of the abominations You see daily, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

IMPRESSING THE URGENCY OF THE TIMES

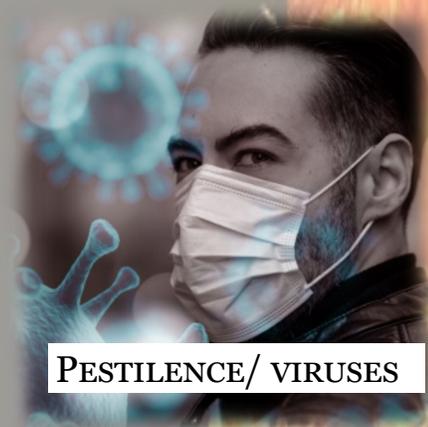

WARS, RUMORS

NATIONS AGAINST NATIONS

FAMINE : The world is facing widespread famine “of biblical proportions” because of the coronavirus pandemic, the chief of the UN’s food relief agency has warned, with a short time to act before hundreds of millions starve.

PESTILENCE/ VIRUSES

FALSE PROPHETS SHOWING GREAT SIGNS TO DECEIVE. Confesses to having been a false prophet for years, worshipping a god given by a witch doctor. Shared platform with great ministers. Now claims to be converted but is on a mission to destroy every church and minister he has been associated with.

EARTHQUAKES

CHILDREN AND YOUTH'S CORNER

FIVE(5) REASONS TO PRIORITIZE CHILDREN:

- I. What they will face in their generations will be significantly worse than anything you will ever face.
- II. They are being proactively evangelized by demonic influences through very accessible, enjoyable and engaging mediums.
- III. They are usually not self-motivated to pursue spiritual things.
- IV. You lose the children you lose a generation; the instruction is to train them in the way they should go so they will make good choices in their generation.
- V. It is every believer's mandate.

OUR CHILDREN ALL BELONG TO GOD; THEY ARE ENTRUSTED TO YOUR CARE AS MOSES WAS TO HIS MOTHER'S. YOU HAVE A DUTY AND RESPONSIBILITY TO RAISE THEM WELL FOR THE KING.

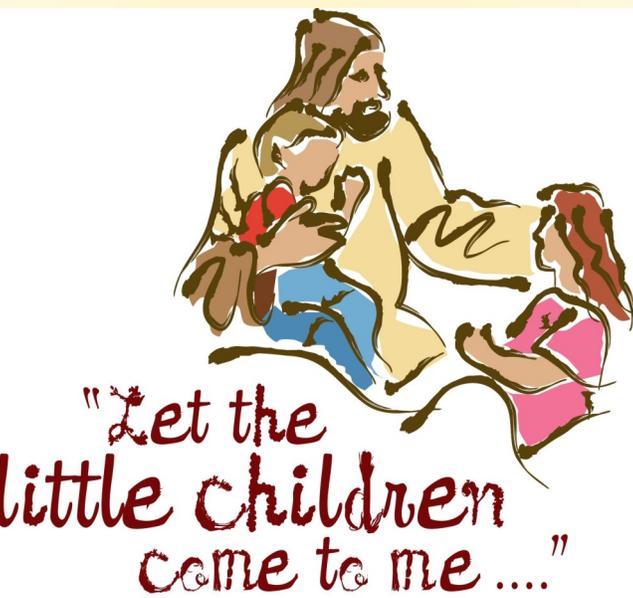

The cross is the most beautiful gift we can offer our children.

SUFFER THE LITTLE CHILDREN TO COME TO ME!
FORBID THEM NOT!

SUFFER THE CHILDREN

- Convey them
- Make provision for them
- Make allowance for them
- Do not ignore them
- Be pro-active to reach them
- Expend your resources on them
- Direct them
- Prioritize them
- Give them the time, attention, details and patience they need.

DO NOT FORBID

- Do not slight them
- Do not ignore them
- Do not turn them away
- Do not prevent them
- Do not marginalize them
- DO NOT OFFEND THEM BY DOING NOT! (THING)
- OR BY NOT DOING ENOUGH.
- Do not relegate them to the world social media agenda

MATTHEW 19:14

It simply means that the church must design specific, intentional, proactive programs to reach, minister, disciple, educate and inform the children and youths. COVID-19 is not an excuse, instead it is a new opportunity for the church to begin to see the internet as a ministry opportunity to a generation totally dis-engaged and distracted.

RESPONSE TO

CHILDREN AND YOUTH MINISTRIES

HEAVENLY FATHER, RELEASE THE GRACE FOR EFFECTIVE CHILDREN MINISTRY UPON EVERY CHURCH AND EVERY HOME TODAY. I PRAY THAT THE CHILDREN WILL NOT BE ABANDONED IN THESE TIMES, BUT THAT CHURCHES WILL PROACTIVELY DEVELOP AND DESIGN PROGRAMS TO EFFECTIVELY TRAIN AND DEVELOP OUR CHILDREN AND YOUTHS TO BE FIERY CHRISTIANS. AS CHURCHES PROACTIVELY MINISTER TO CHILDREN IN THESE TIMES, LET THEM BE DIVINELY EMPOWERED TO ENGAGE CHILDREN EFFECTIVELY. FOR THOSE CHURCHES WHO ARE CONTEMPLATING IN-PERSON MEETINGS, I SPEAK SAFETY AND THE GRACE FOR CONSISTENT VOLUNTEERS. THANK YOU LORD JESUS FOR MINISTRIES WILLING TO FIGHT FOR THE NEXT GENERATION, IN THE NAME OF JESUS.

Holy Spirit, cover my home under the blood of Jesus. My children shall serve You. Make me an effective minister to my children. Release the grace to engage my children effectively and to model You before them. Teach me so I may train them to be the persons You are calling them to be. I refuse and reject the spirit of complacency, of laziness and surrender. My children shall passionately love You with awareness of the times and of Your word and they will be empowered to make right choices. Amen.

PREFACE AND INTRODUCTION

PREFACE

In the hustle and bustle of everyday life, millions, considered poor, are in a fight for survival, the middle class is occupied getting rich, and the rich are getting bored and wasteful, while still greedy for more. With the reality of the end times passing the ordinary believer by on the silent wind, the kingdom is calling for administrators.

The apostle Paul is still crying out for us to redeem the time because the days are evil. With this cry a profound truth has been dislodged from heaven, searching for hearts to inhabit. This truth is an open secret that many will hear but only a few will receive. The secret is being whispered with the wind this very minute and tugging at your heart. Will you receive it?

The BIG Secret:

1. Anyone can be a Kingdom administrator, rich or poor; strong or weak... anyone.

2. You must understand who owns the resources you will be given to administer, what He desires for His resources, His laws that govern His resources and His rewards from good administration.

3. And... you must obtain His heart for His people above the resources you administer. This book Kingdom Financing takes us into the belly of the end time beast to rescue a world that is being devoured. It mobilizes you to understand and deploy the financial design of the Kingdom so you can access the supply necessary for enhanced success... Kingdom Success... Good Success... Whatever you do shall prosper success.

INTRODUCTION

“Lucifer is cast down from Heaven to earth. He has taken one-third of the angels with him,” said the first Voice of authority. “Yes We must replace them all,” the second Voice of authority said. “We will create beings in Our image,” they spoke together. “And in Our likeness,” the third Voice of authority spoke. It was as if these three deities were thinking the same thing concurrently and they were in perfect agreement with each other even before a word was uttered. “We will place them on the earth, where Satan is.” The first Voice of authority said.

(Now Satan is that same Lucifer, the archangel who rebelled and was cast out of heaven) “We will not create this being in Heaven. Let Us create them on earth,” the first Voice spoke. “Yes, test them for their faithfulness there first,” the third Voice said. “Then take them to Heaven,” the second quipped.

“Let Us give them authority over the earth,” the Voice continued. “Satan will be angry with them, he will attempt to steal that authority from them,” the second Voice of authority spoke as a joint proponent.

PREFACE AND INTRODUCTION

And he will succeed,” the third Voice said. “Blood will have to be shed to redeem them.” The first Voice spoke.

“The blood of man. It must be a man who has not fallen prey to Satan,” the first Voice said. “Someone has to rise to destroy the works of the Devil.”

“I will become that man, and die and offer My blood,” the second Voice spoke up. “Consider Me slain.” He continued. “I now sacrifice You for the redemption of man. I would rather consider You resurrected though,” the first Voice said, pained. “I will stay with mankind to teach them the ways of God and help them to prepare for the kingdom of Heaven,” the third Voice spoke up. “I will help them overcome their tests. There will be ongoing resistance of Satan to their redemption.” “You will prepare My bride.” The second Voice said.

“Only giving, Our giving, man’s giving, can make it possible,” the first Voice concluded. “The principles of Our redemption plan are:

Giving constantly;
 Giving the very best;
 Giving freely and selflessly;
 Giving of self;
 Giving generously;
 Giving in obedience;
 Giving as an act of Worship;
 Giving extravagantly
 Preparation of the gift in advance, You my Son!
 Love: The giving that love compels as love has compelled Me to offer You My Son.
 Considering the gift sacrificed, slain, once it is dedicated; never to be withheld or withdrawn. I consider You sacrificed.

The gift will continue to give until purpose is fully accomplished, yes every gift perpetuates.

You will bring many sons to glory. Every gift is personal to Me, to honor Me as You have done.”

The second Voice spoke up, “For the Kingdom to be expedited, these principles must be replicated by mankind. My covenant will be established through giving.”

“As with God, so with man! You will initiate the redemption plan, man must promulgate and perpetuate it,” the first Voice added. “I will give man the power to get wealth. Sadly only a few will understand its purpose. Only a few will remember the Lord their God. The cattle on every hill is Mine. Grievously many will build private pens for the cattle and even deny Me access. They will attempt to put bars and gates on our redemption plan. Man must be taught to give, to let go,” He continued.

Just as You have done Father,” the second Voice picked up.

“You will be recalled to Heaven, but I will go to earth,” the third Voice spoke up, addressing the second Voice.

“I will not have a body so I cannot take this salvation to man in person.” “You will live in man,” The second Voice said.

“That will make them gods like us,” the first Voice quipped.

“The real power is to those who understand this and take on Your character,” the second Voice asserted. “Only a few will really understand this.” The third Voice said almost lamenting. “Mankind will have to continue where I leave off,” the second Voice said.

“They will have to give as I gave and much more.”

PREFACE AND INTRODUCTION

The first Voice spoke, "They will have need of travel, communication, labor, materials, buildings and expenses. Mankind must be taught the principles of giving. It will be a struggle against their selfish sinful nature, but it is necessary for true success. The expediting of the salvation of mankind will be measured by the generosity of mankind. It is on giving that the redemption plan of mankind is anchored."

The second Voice concluded then, "Man will be gods like us. They will have to adopt our nature of love, selflessness, and generosity to save mankind." "And replace the angels who have fallen, whom We have lost forever," the first Voice added. And so it happened, God created a world that would perpetuate by reproduction. God placed the seed of the plants in themselves. He placed the seed of the animals and mankind in the males. There would have to be interaction, communication and exchange to facilitate procreation. The very existence of life was based on giving. When Adam fell, the principle of sowing and reaping and reproduction became very apparent to mankind. Adam had to sweat in order to sustain himself. Man's continued existence depended on his knowledge and engaging of these principles of giving, and of sowing and reaping. Adam understood that life in any form could only continue to exist by giving.

The human race had to produce and reproduce. This would be the setting in which the redemptive plan of God would be placed. It would enter the earth as a seed, as small as the grain of a mustard seed. It would enter the earth as a little leaven. The plan of redemption would be dependent on the principle of giving, receiving and reproduction. This is how it was packaged and given to mankind. The Voices of the deity in heaven, all three as one, echoed together in chorus, "Except a grain of wheat falls to the ground and die, it abides alone!"

GIVING IS NOT AN AFTER-THOUGHT; THE GIFT WAS PREPARED, PRESENTED AND SLAIN IN HEAVEN BEFORE MAN WAS CREATED. AS HE HAS DONE; SO WE DO!
