AMERICA'S EVANGELICALS STUNNED BY ELECTION RESULTS

IN A COUNTRY WHERE 80% OF EVANGELICALS VOTED FOR PRESIDENT TRUMP, THERE IS WIDE SPREAD DISAPPOINTMENT AND LAMENTATION AT THE NEWS THAT THE ELECTION HAS BEEN CALLED FOR JOE BIDEN. SOME PEOPLE, INCLUDING DONALD TRUMP, WHO ARE NOT READY TO CONCEDE JUST YET, BELIEVE THAT THE ELECTION HAS BEEN STOLEN. IT IS THE OPINION IN SOME CIRCLES THAT THE VOTING AND COUNT IN THE BATTLEGROUNDS STATE HAVE BEEN SABOTAGED TO GIVE BIDEN THE EDGE.

POPULAR TELE-EVANGELIST KENNETH COPELAND IS REPORTED TO HAVE LAUGHED SARCASTICALLY, "IN THE SPIRIT" WHEN HE ANNOUNCED TO HIS CHURCH THAT BIDEN IS ANNOUNCED THE WINNER.

IN ACCORDANCE WITH ONE REPORT:

"The media said what?" Copeland asks just before some string on his back is released and he begins laughing. "The media said, 'Joe Biden is president,'" he adds. "Ha! Ha! Ha ha ha!" Copeland laughed for almost a minute as the congregation stood, applauded and joined him in laughing.

SO WHO IS EVANGELICAL SO CAPTIVATED BY TRUMP?

When President Trump won the White House four years ago in a surprise victory, conservative Christians could not believe their good fortune.

At every turn of his presidency, he gave them everything they wanted: Two hundred federal judges appointed for life. An embassy in Jerusalem. Anti-abortion policies. Two Supreme Court Justices, and then in the final hours, a third. He was their bulwark, their defender, at a time when the country as they knew it, and their place in it, was changing. And he brought their movement to a pinnacle of political maturity.

Now the election of Joseph R. Biden Jr. marks a new chapter for conservative Christian power, which reached a peak under

Mr. Trump. As Republican evangelicals around the country processed the week's events, they reflected on how much they had gained in the last four years and on their fears over what could happen under a Biden administration. They also wondered when and how they would regain power.

In Sheldon, Iowa, where about eight out of ten voters supported Mr.

Trump, Leah Schoonhoven journaled her concerns about a Biden presidency over three single-spaced pages. She worried that the election results were corrupted, and that Mr. Biden would reverse Mr. Trump's priorities, from building the border wall to elevating conservative evangelical ideals on religious freedom.

EVANGELICAL ATTAINMENTS UNDER TRUMP'S FIRST 4 YEAR TERM—CHRISTIAN POST

ENACTED AN EXECUTIVE ORDER ON 'RELIGIOUS LIBERTY'

On the National Day of Prayer in May, Trump gathered a number of the nation's leading evangelical and Christian leaders at the White House Rose Garden and signed an executive order on free speech and religious liberty.

Among other things, the order instructed the Department of Treasury and the IRS not to take adverse action against churches and 501(c)(3) nonprofits that speak out about moral and political issues in accordance with their faith. The move was Trump's attempt at taking the teeth out of the Johnson Amendment, a 1954 law that bans tax-exempt nonprofits from engaging in political campaigning. It was a law that Trump had vowed to abolish during the campaign.

The executive order also called on the Department of Justice to issue guidance to federal agencies about how they can best protect religious liberty as it applies under federal law. The order also called on the Department of Health and Human Services to consider providing religious exemptions to an Obamacare contraception mandate that religious organizations felt violated their religious convictions.

ESTABLISHING RIGHTS TO PRAY IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

JUSTICE DEPARTMENT GUIDANCE ON RELIGIOUS FREEDOM

Just as Trump had called for in his May executive order, Attorney General Jeff Sessions in October issued a sweeping guidance on religious freedom to all federal agencies.

As there is much debate surrounding the intersection of religious freedom and LGBT rights, Sessions' order states that "The Free Exercise Clause protects not just the right to believe or the right to worship; it protects the right to perform or abstain from performing certain physical acts in accordance with one's beliefs."

The guidance also states that individuals and organizations don't lose their rights to religious liberty protections under federal law simply because of their employment status or their affiliation with any level government.

The guidance explains that agencies must not "second-guess the reasonableness of a religious belief," adding that religious freedom protections apply "to all sincerely held religious beliefs, whether or not central to, or mandated by, a particular religious organization or tradition."

Sessions' guidance went on to add that religious freedom protections are not lost in situations in which religious exemptions could deprive a third party of a particular "benefit."

"Under the Obama administration, agencies lost the understanding that religious freedoms extend to the public square, not just one's place of worship. As a result, our own government began threatening hardworking, patriotic Americans with crushing fines for simply seeking to live their lives according to their faith," Family Research Council President Tony Perkins said in a statement. "President Trump and the Department of Justice are putting federal government agencies on notice: you will not only respect the freedom of every American to believe but live according to those beliefs. This is a freedom that has been a fundamental part of our society since the beginning of our nation."

GIVING RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATIONS EXEMPTIONS TO THE OBAMACARE CONTRACEPTION MANDATE

The announcement of Sessions' religious freedom guidance in October came shortly after the Trump administration announced two new federal rules that would allow nonprofits and for-profit businesses to make religious and moral objections to a Department of Health and Human Services Obamacare mandate requiring the coverage of contraceptive and abortion-inducing drugs.

The decision came after a number of religious nonprofits (most notably Little Sisters of the Poor) filed lawsuits against the Obama-era mandate that they felt compelled them to violate their deeply-held religious beliefs. Although churches were exempt from the mandate, religious organizations (and even a group of nuns) had trouble getting the same exemption.

"President Trump is demonstrating his commitment to undoing the anti-faith policies of the previous administration and restoring true religious freedom," Perkins said in a statement.

"Last May, the president ordered the federal government to vigorously promote and protect religious liberty – and now the DOJ and HHS are moving to make that order a reality."

REVERSING OBAMA'S TRANSGENDER PUBLIC SCHOOL POLICY

Social conservatives were outraged in 2016 when the Obama administration issued a guidance to public school districts throughout the U.S. urging them to allow male students who identify as transgender to go into girls' bathrooms, locker rooms and showers, and vice versa. Many parents felt that Obama's policy infringed on students' privacy rights.

In February, Trump's Justice Department and Department of Education withdrew the Obama-era guidance.

"I'm very glad to see the Trump administration revoke these guidelines. This move is good for parents and good for families," Russell Moore said in a statement. "Children are not pawns of the state to be used to advance the latest fashionable 'right side of history' cause. Christians must continue to insist that the worldview of the sexual revolution harms men and women and advocate for the inherent dignity of all."

REVERSING OBAMA ORDER ON FEDERAL CONTRACTORS

In March, Trump revoked an Obama executive order that prevented federal contracts from being awarded to businesses, faith-based companies and nonprofits that have hiring practices that critics say discriminate on the basis of sexual orientation and gender identity.

Trump's decision to sign the order came after social conservative leaders expressed disappointment when Trump chose earlier on in his presidency to renew the order mandating that federal government contractors have LGBT anti-discrimination policies.

"It is a heartening demonstration of the president's commitment to fulfill his campaign promise to protect religious liberty," Abraham Hamilton III, a policy analyst at the American Family Association, told The Christian Post.

"American citizens should not be forced to abandon their faith in order to contract with the federal government. We hope this is an early indication that religious freedom protection will be a defining feature of President Trump's."

TRUMP'S ACHIEVEMENTS FOR EVANGELICALS

JERUSALEM PROCLAMATION

Most recently, Trump earned the praise of evangelical leaders when he announced earlier this month that the U.S. would recognize Jerusalem as Israel's capital and that the U.S. Embassy would be moved there from Tel Aviv. Although many around the world, including some U.S. allies and Middle Eastern Christian leaders, have condemned the move, it has pleased many American evangelicals. Former Arkansas Gov. Mike Huckabee told Fox News that the move was something that the U.S.

"should've done a long time ago."

"This is where the Jewish state should have its undisputed capital," Huckabee said, calling it "the right thing to do."

Other evangelical leaders, such as James Dobson, offered their statements of praise. "Throughout the years, I have had the great privilege of serving and advising political leaders at all levels of government, and yet, I have witnessed many promises made concerning Israel that were never fulfilled. With the decision to formally recognize Jerusalem as the capital of Israel, President Trump stands apart, once again demonstrating that he intends to keep his promises to the American people," Dobson said.

"I am greatly encouraged by this declaration and believe that America is always stronger when it stands firmly behind its allies, especially when it comes to the Jewish people and the land of Israel. Please join me in praying for continued wisdom for President Trump and this administration, and for a lasting peace in Israel and throughout the Middle East."

It's also important to note that while many Democrats are condemning the move, just six months ago they supported recognizing Jerusalem as the capital of Israel.

In June, the U.S. Senate unanimously passed a resolution declaring that Jerusalem is the capital of Israel.

APPOINTING THREE (3) CONSERVATIVE JUDGES TO THE US SUPREME COURT

Evangelicals and social conservatives desperately wanted a justice to be nominated who could be counted on to side with conservatives in cases involving abortion and religious freedom. Many knew that if Democrat Hillary Clinton were to win the election, they would get the exact opposite and would further tilt the balance of the court to favor the political left's social agenda.

During the campaign, Trump vowed to nominate a strict originalist jurist and even produced a shortlist of nominees, a list that was praised by many conservative activists and pro-life leaders.

On Jan. 31, 2017 Trump nominated Neil Gorsuch, a U.S. 10th Circuit Court of Appeals judge who had previously sided with Hobby Lobby against the Obama administration in 2013. He has since appointed Brett Kavanaugh in 2018 and Amy Coney Barrett in 2020.

GOD OF ALL THE EARTH; RULER OF THE ENTIRE WORLD, WE CALL ON YOU TO COMPLETE WHAT YOU STARTED DOING WITH DONALD TRUMP. WE PRAY FOR THE PEACE OF ISRAEL; WE SPEAK LIFE TO OUR UNBORN CHILDREN; WE RENOUNCE THE SACRIFICES OF OUR CHILDREN TO SATAN; OUR LAWS SHALL SUPPORT YOUR VALUES AND THE DECREES OF YOUR WORD. LET YOUR WORD BECOME OUR LAW, IN THE NAME OF JESUS. MAY YOUR WILL BE DONE ON EARTH AS IT IS IN HEAVEN. AMEN.

Holy Father, my tears overflow for my generation. My children shall not be overwhelmed by demonic systems. By the power in the blood of Jesus, let the light of God shine in this dark world. As the White House was lit with rebellious colors, let it be lit with the light of Jesus. May the glory of the Lord reside there and turn the heart of whoever occupies it to You; turn them like rivers of water. Amen.

PROPHETS RESOLUTE AS ELECTION CALLED FOR BIDEN

Many reputable ministers and known prophets have called the elections for Donald Trump.

Even with the wind stacked against him as Biden took the lead and even with the elections called for Biden some confidently assert that the result will be overturned and Trump would win. Others are settled that Trump will have a second term, even in 2024

HAS GOD CALLED THE PROPHETS TOGETHER AROUND THIS ISSUE OF TRUMP TO EMBARRASS THEM?

Let us examine their case.

PAT ROBERTSON: First of all I want to say without question, Trump is going to win the election.

SADHU: God said Trump will continue for another term for God's purposes to be fulfilled for this nation; it means He is not finished yet. God wants to give you another four years of grace.

ARE THE PROPHETS PROPHECYING FROM THEIR SPIRITS OR THE SPIRIT OF GOD?

PASTOR MARK TAYLOR: Absolutely an 8 year presidency; I am sure about that.

PASTOR GOULET: At 4:30 the Lord said to me, I am going to give your president a second win.

FRANKLIN GRAHAM: I believe Donald Trump is the president; God has put him in this position.

Pastor Chris: If he can get through this and he doesn't give up; He wins!

KAT KERR: There are angels around every voting precinct and 100,000 angels around the White House. They even carry Trump's plane when it flies, so God is adamant to make sure he remains here and I believe God will move people on the day of the elections to vote for Trump.

CAN SO MANY GET IT WRONG, OR IS THE WORLD ON A PROPHETIC ALERT?

JON HAMILL

Saw president Trump under water. Saw by the Spirit, they tried to leverage him but it did not work so they tried to throw him over board.

The angel said this is the resurrection of Donald John Trump. Not of the president but of Donald Trump. He is about to receive a major visitation and personal restoration. They will try to assassinate him. First they will go after his character and also literal. Trump will be a two term president based on our prayers. Prayer will tip the scale.

KERRY KIRKWOOD

The Lord told me: Do not be disturbed by poll numbers and all the things you are hearing. I am in charge and I will cause them to fill up these bowls of iniquity, but when I raise up my servant Trump with a high hand it will show the lying spirit for what they are and people's eyes will be open and truth will come in.

The release of the spirit of truth is coming on our land that will destroy the lying spirits filtering through the media. God is going to raise up Trump with a high hand.

JEREMIAH JOHNSON

Had a dream at end of 2019.

Walked into office at the White House. Trump was staring into mirror and Abraham Lincoln looked back at him.

Jeremiah told Trump he was there to reveal the principalities that must be torn down. He opened curtain and there were three large principalities about 40 feet each standing on the lawn.

They were: Racism; Radical Feminism and Molech: the shedding of innocent blood of children. All three principalities are connected.

History of planned parenthood. It was formed by a woman named Sanger because she did not want the African American community to be large. She founded what she called the negro project.

God raised up Lincoln at a unique time in history for an emancipation proclamation concerning the slaves; He is raising Donald Trump to issue an emancipation proclamation for the millions of babies who have been aborted.

PROPHETS ARE NOT SHIFTING

GROUP ROBIN & ROBIN BULLOCK SPEAKING ON IT'S SUPERNATURAL

The Lord spoke to him in 2012 and said we are in a prophetic cycle. The time of Moses had begun. God said we are coming out. NOT LONG AFTER THE HEADLINES AROUND THE WORLD READ.

Longest river in China turned Blood Red; the Beirut river turned Blood Red.

Portland group brought out golden calf and began to dance around it.

Pillar of fire caught on camera going across Australian desert.

Locusts in Cairo, Egypt.

Fire and ice storm hit, reminiscent of seventh plague; 2019: rivers turn Blood Red across the world; swarm of locusts, billions in Kenya.

Blood Red River in Turkey after earthquake; they say it is a replay of first plague in Egypt.

Earthquake hit Red Sea at place Israel crossed.

Netanyahu lockdown due to Covid.

Then death angel, the Coronavirus hit.

People started putting red ribbons over their doors.

They also began playing a game on social media posting pics of firstborn.

Culmination of time of Moses.

Headed next to Red Sea (no where to turn, looks completely hopeless).

Election is Red Sea.

The Lord said all of this is about this; I am calling Baal out on the battle field.

When they came out of Egypt they defeated every god except Baal. They first came to Baal-zephon where the people offered child sacrifice to Baal.

God is calling Baal out; child sacrifice has gone on long enough.

This election will mark a decisive defeat of Baal when God shows up.

ON NOV 12, PRESIDENT TRUMP WON A MAJOR LEGAL CHALLENGE IN PENNSYLVANIA TO HAVE SOME ABSENTEE VOTES DISQUALIFIED BASED ON VALIDATION DATE AND THE PROPHETS FEEL THEY ARE BEING VINDICATED.

ALL WISE GOD, RELEASE YOUR GRACE UPON THE CHURCH IN THIS MINUTE. VINDICATE THE PROPHE- TIC MINISTRY IN THIS TIME OF CON- FUSION. RESTORE CONFIDENCE IN YOUR WORD THROUGH THE MOUTH OF YOUR MINISTERS. WE PRAY FA- THER THAT ALL THE UNANSWERED QUESTIONS YOU WILL ANSWER; EVERY CONFUSION IN THE HEARTS OF BELIEVERS RELATING TO THE PROPHE- TIC VOICE WILL DIE. WE RELEASE THE GRACE FOR COM- PLETE ACCURACY INTO THE SPIRIT OF EVERY BELIEVER; THEY WILL NOT FEAR TO DECLARE YOUR WORD. AMEN.

Holy Spirit, You speak every day. Help me never to doubt Your word to me and through me. Let me never be afraid of declaring messages You have given to me even if it makes me look stupid. I would rather look stupid than be disobedient. By the power in the blood of Jesus, I declare that I walk in the spirit, the Holy Spirit lives in me and He has complete freedom to speak to me and through me. Amen.

CAN PROPHETS GET IT WRONG AND STILL BE RIGHT? BIBLICAL EXAMPLE

WITH SO MANY PROPHETS AND RESPECTED LEADERS PROPHECYING A WIN FOR TRUMP THAT IT WOULD NATURALLY FOLLOW THAT GOD MUST BE SAYING SOMETHING ABOUT TRUMP.

COULD IT BE THAT THEY HAVE THE RIGHT PROPHECY BUT THE WRONG TIMING?
COULD IT BE THAT THE RESULTS WILL BE OVERTURNED, AND IF SO, WHY WAS IT NOT DECISIVE IN THE FIRST PLACE?

COULD IT BE THAT A DECISIVE VICTORY IS AVERTED BECAUSE THE ISSUES WE FIGHT OUTSIDE THE CHURCH ARE PRESENT IN THE CHURCH...HAS THE CHURCH LOST ITS SALTINESS?

COULD IT BE THE CHURCH IS LUKEWARM?

COULD IT BE THERE IS NOT ENOUGH INTERNAL RESOLVE AGAINST THE SIN THAT EXISTS WITHIN THE BODY OF BELIEVERS?

COULD IT BE THE LESSON FROM THE CORONAVIRUS WHICH RAVISHED CHURCHES, STOLE MEMBERS AND LEADERS AND FORCED CLOSURES IS THE SAME FOR THE PROPHETIC FAILS; THE CHURCH IS NOT EXCLUDED?

CERTAINLY THERE IS SCRIPTURE TO SUPPORT GOD'S PEOPLE ACCURATELY HEARING HIS VOICE YET HAVING AN ADVERSE RESULT THAT DIRECTLY CONTRADICTS THE WORD THEY WERE GIVEN.

WE LOOK AT AN EXAMPLE IN JUDGES 20 BELOW FROM THE CARIBBEAN WORSHIP AND DEVOTIONAL STUDY(CWDS) BIBLE.

IN THIS EXAMPLE FROM THE CWDS BIBLE, ISRAEL LOST 26,000 MEN BECAUSE OF WHAT WOULD BE CONSIDERED A PROPHETIC FAIL.

THEY KEPT SEEKING GOD AND KEPT FOLLOWING HIS INSTRUCTIONS.
THEY FAILED A SECOND TIME ACTING ON A DIRECT WORD FROM GOD.
THE THIRD TIME GOD SAID, "THIS TIME VICTORY IS YOURS!"

One of the lessons highlighted in the quotes is:

FAILURE DOES NOT MEAN YOU HAVE NOT HEARD FROM GOD, REFINE YOUR STRATEGIES, KEEP SEEKING, KEEP PRESSING.

JUDGES 20—CWDS BIBLE WITH QUOTES & PRAYERS
PROPHETIC CONFUSION— DID WE HEAR GOD?

THEY gathered in numbers; they gathered all as one.
They all came together, for evil was done.
Whether among brethren or strangers it will tell,
To see all together is a sign that speaks well.
To find evil revolting is to have the heart of the Rock;
And a love for His worship when it moves you to act.

JUDGES 20

¹From Dan to Beersheba and from the land of Gilead as well, all the children of Israel gathered as one;
They gathered at Mizpah before the Lord.
²The leaders of all the people, all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God,
Four hundred thousand footmen who drew the sword, everyone.
³(The children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel had gone to Mizpah.)
It was because of what this one man did; now he must explain word by word.
The children of Israel said, "Explain to us, how did this wickedness happen?"
⁴So the Levite, the husband of the murdered woman, answered and said,
"My concubine and I went to Gibeah of Benjamin to lodge for the night.
⁵"And the men of Gibeah rose against me, and surrounded the house at night because of me.
They would have killed me, but instead they raped my concubine until she was dead.
⁶"So I took my concubine, and cut her in twelve pieces, and sent her all over, throughout all Israel, for this lewdness and folly that in Israel was done.
⁷"You are all children of Israel; give your advice and counsel now!"
⁸So all the people arose and answered as one,

"None of us will go to his tent, nor will any return to his house;
⁹"but we will do this to Gibeah, we will go up against it by lot.
¹⁰"We will take one tenth of the men of all the tribes in Israel, to make provision for everyone, that when they come to Gibeah in Benjamin, they may repay all the vileness they have done in Israel."
¹¹So all the men of Israel gathered against Gibeah; as one man they were united.
¹²Then the men of Israel waged war against sin;
they sent men throughout Benjamin saying,
"What is this wickedness that has occurred among you?"
¹³Deliver up the men, the wicked men in Gibeah, that we may put them to death and purge this evil from Israel!"
But the children of Benjamin would not listen to what their brethren, the children of Israel, was saying.
¹⁴Instead the children of Benjamin gathered out of the cities to Gibeah, to do battle against Israel.
¹⁵And the children of Benjamin numbered twenty-six thousand men who drew sword, beside the inhabitants of Gibeah, who numbered seven hundred chosen men.
¹⁶And among them also were seven hundred chosen men who were left-handed;
each of them could sling stones at a hair breadth, and they would never miss.
¹⁷Now, besides Benjamin, the men of Israel numbered four hundred thousand men who drew sword; all of them were men of war, ¹⁸Then the children of Israel arose and went up to the house of God, to ask counsel of the Lord.
They said, "Which of us shall go first to battle against the children of Benjamin?"
The Lord said, "Judah shall go up first."
¹⁹So the children of Israel rose in the morning and camped against Gibeah.
²⁰And the men of Israel went out to battle with Benjamin, and they entered battle to fight them at Gibeah.

JUDGES 20—CWDS BIBLE WITH QUOTES & PRAYERS
PROPHETIC CONFUSION— DID WE HEAR GOD?

⁴⁰But when the cloud began to rise from the city in a pillar of smoke, the Benjamites looked behind them, and behold; the entire city was going up in smoke rising up to heaven.
⁴¹And when Israel turned back, the men of Benjamin were amazed, for they saw the evil coming on them.
⁴²Therefore they turned their backs before Israel that day and went in the direction of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them, and they destroyed those who came out of the city in their midst.
⁴³They surrounded the Benjamites, and easily trampled them down, as far as before Gibeah and towards the rising of the sun.
⁴⁴Eighteen thousand men fell of Benjamin, all men of valor.
⁴⁵They then turned and fled towards the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon; and they struck down five thousand of them in the highways. They pursued them relentlessly to Gidom, and struck down two thousand more,
⁴⁶So there fell of Benjamin that day, a total of twenty-five thousand men, all men of valor, who drew the sword.
⁴⁷But to the rock of Rimmon towards the wilderness, six hundred men fled. They remained in the rock of Rimmon four months.
⁴⁸And the men of Israel turned back against the children of Benjamin, and struck them down with the edge of the sword—every man of every city, and the beasts, and all who were found. They also set fire to all the cities they came to—a total victory to win;
For they had resisted unto blood as they strove in this war against sin.

CWDS Bible Quotes

Sin must unite the church or it will divide her.
Sin within the body of Christ requires decisive resolve of the body as a unit to fight and dispose of it.

Complaining or commenting about sin among believers without action never removes the sin, it simply elevates it.
Harboring and defending sin is very expensive; it is a total loss even when it appears you are winning.
Seek the heart and direction of God when addressing maladies in the body; it gets technical when you fight internal sin.
Failure does not mean you have not heard from God, refine your strategies, keep seeking, keep pressing.
God gives you complete victory, search your heart to search His heart before you surge forward.
No one is qualified to lay a sword or lift up a voice against his brother without searching himself first.
God may give you the victory but retain the timing until you sincerely search your heart and find His.
Complacency is the courier of your defeat in any arena.
There is a price to pay to fight sin measured in time, resources and resistance even to blood; Jesus paid the ultimate price.
The loss of lives on the battlefield does not eliminate God from the picture; it hurts but keep pressing.

PRAYER POINTS

- God my Father, raise up intercessors for the church who will travail day and night for its redemption in this evil age, in the name of Jesus. Amen.
 - God, our Redeemer, let sin, immorality and bloodshed be always repulsive to our souls, and let it move us as it moves You, in the precious name of Jesus Christ.
 - Lord of hosts, give us resilience unto death against the stubborn enemy of sin, and help us not to count our lives more important than the life of Your Son, in the name of Jesus. Amen.
- Father God, unite the church for an effective response in these end times as sin becomes more organized and institutionalized, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

WITCHCRAFT TARGETING CHURCH LEADERS AS PUBLIC CHURCH LEADERS FALL

Last week we examined witchcraft in society but it is more prevalent in church than many are willing to believe or accept.

Why would the devil be raising up an army of deviant rebellious God-haters if he does not target this against the church?

Witchcraft, in essence, is rebellion as we will examine in a later article from David Wilkenson.

The devil is a strategist and is very patient. He is always looking for opportunities against believers. Jesus said, 'He comes and finds nothing in Me.'

RECENTLY MANY HIGH PROFILE PASTORS AND CHRISTIAN LEADERS HAVE BEEN FALLING. FOR THOSE WHO APPEAR STRONG, THERE IS A TARGETED EFFORT AGAINST THEIR FAITH. WE SAW RECENTLY WHERE MOST OF THE PROPHETIC PASTORS IN AFRICA WERE TARGETED BY A SELF-CONFESSED SATANIST, JAY ISRAEL, WHO WENT FOR THEIR REPUTATION AND THEIR PLATFORM. IT WAS LATER REVEALED THAT IS A SATANIST PRACTICANT.

THE BOOK OF JOHN GRAY

When John Gray took over the premises in Greenville he mentioned that they had to drive away a group of witches doing incantation in the church yard.

Since the two years he has been there he has been embroiled in a public property squabble with another public Christian leader, Ron Carpenter, that has damaged their reputation and brought the church in disrepute.

He has had two cheating scandals that have damaged his reputation and left his church tottering.

Did the witches go away?

How many of them are sitting in the pews speaking incantations every Sunday?

Are there any on staff?

This is what Satan is known for, he infiltrates and disintegrates to attack from within.

Judas was among Jesus' twelve inner circle.

DAVID WILKENSON WARNED ABOUT THIS IN A BOOK HE WROTE IN 2003 named WITCHCRAFT IN THE CHURCH.

IT READS: A number of witches are going about the country today, warning that Satanists are infiltrating the church—especially charismatic churches.

Some of these former witches have authored books telling of a diabolical plot by evil witches to enter congregations posing as super-spiritual Christians. Their purpose is to deceive and shipwreck pastors and to lead multitudes of naive believers into occult worship.

Many of these evil witches, they say, are already firmly established in numerous churches, controlling both the pastor and congregation and causing great confusion, wickedness, divorce—even death. We have received many letters in our office from people who say they believe their pastor must be under some kind of demonic influence—and I believe many of these letters are very legitimate.

A North Carolina pastor is accused of peeing on a woman while she was sleeping on a Delta flight

A North Carolina pastor has been accused of peeing on a woman while she was sleeping on a Delta flight earlier this month, according to authorities and local news reports.

A man identified in a police report as Daniel Chalmers, a pastor at Love Wins Ministries in Raleigh, is accused of urinating on Alicia Beverly during a flight from Las Vegas to Detroit on October 13, The Winston-Salem Journal reported on Tuesday.

"Law enforcement officials met Delta flight 874 from Las Vegas to Detroit upon arrival on Tuesday, October 13, due to an unruly customer," a Delta representative told Insider.

"We will defer to local law enforcement for specific details and further questions related to this incident."

The police report provided to The Journal said Beverly told authorities that she noticed "someone standing over her" and "woke up feeling something warm on her body." The police report said that she identified Chalmers as the person who peed on her and that she started screaming after she realized what happened.

"I jump up and I seen his private area out and I screamed and that woke everybody up," Beverly told Fox 2 Detroit on October 14. "By that time I actually looked at him and I see him shake himself off and I'm like this man just peed on me! I looked and there was a puddle of pee in the seats!"

The police report said that when the flight arrived at Detroit Metro Airport, authorities questioned Beverly about the incident and Chalmers denied her claims. "I'm a pastor, that is out of my character and I didn't do it," Chalmers was quoted as saying in the report.

The police report said Chalmers told authorities that he had ingested prescribed medication and had some alcoholic drinks, though a passenger on the flight said Chalmers had told them that he wasn't drinking. Chalmers was then taken into custody.

He apologized in a statement to Fox 2 Detroit on Tuesday.

"I took an Ambien for the first time to sleep well on my flight and had a terrible reaction,"

Chalmers said. "I am so sorry for how this effected everyone on this flight and especially one lady passenger in particular. I have reached out and apologized to her as well. I want to please ask everyone for their forgiveness in this. I never intended or wanted for this to happen."

The police report said Chalmers was eventually released from custody after getting a citation.

PERRY STONE; TBN MINISTER TAKES SABBATICAL DUE TO MORAL FAILURES

The board of directors for Voice of Evangelism (VOE) issued a recent statement "announcing that evangelist Perry Stone has stepped aside from the pulpit and his travel ministry in response to behavior that 'deviated from the biblical standards set in place for VOE leadership,'" according to the Cleveland Daily Banner of Cleveland, Tennessee.

Stone, 61, who founded the Cleveland-based VOE in 1979, hosts the Manna-fest TV program and preaches to thousands around the world. He has written dozens of books and recorded more than 100 DVDs and CDs.

WITCHCRAFT, SPIRITUAL FATIGUE OR BOTH?

According to the Daily Banner, the statement, released by VOE media relations spokesperson John Rodriguez, said that in April 2020, the board placed Stone "on sabbatical for rest and restoration," citing serious health concerns "related to spiritual and physical burnout" that included dangerously high blood pressure. Rodriguez also said "a couple" of employees at VOE had met with the board to address concerns of "inappropriate words and actions" on Stone's part.

At the board's direction, Stone has stepped aside from his preaching and travel ministry "for an extended period of time."

The board stated that the issues in question were "civil and not criminal," and included an apology from Stone in its statement: "I have asked God and my precious wife Pam to forgive me. And I humbly and sincerely ask those who are hurt or offended by my actions to also forgive me. It is my hope that by the grace of God we will all be able to walk in healing and restoration."

In an audio statement "played for a small, in-person group of church members" and obtained by the Chattanooga Times Free Press, Stone reportedly said he "acted inappropriately with female employees" and that this occurred because of the stress of his ministry work. Stone also asked forgiveness for letting down the high standards he set and that he is receiving professional counseling at an out-of-state clinic.

CARL LENTZ—HILLSONG PASTOR FIRED FROM HILLSONG

Recently Hillsong founding pastor Brian Houston notified staff and members of Hillsong East Coast by email that Carl Lentz had been terminated as lead pastor for the megachurch's New York City location.

The email, which was obtained by Religion News Service, cited the reason for termination as "leadership issues and breaches of trust, plus a recent revelation of moral failures," but did not reveal any details beyond that, saying to do so "would not be appropriate."

"I know this will come as a shock to you, but please know that this action was not taken lightly and was done in the best interests of everyone, including Pastor Carl," Houston wrote.

LENTZ WROTE ON HIS FACEBOOK PAGE: Our time at HillsongNYC has come to an end. This is a hard ending to what has been the most amazing, impacting and special chapter of our lives. Leading this church has been an honor in every sense of the word and it is impossible to articulate how much we have loved and will always love the amazing people in this church. When you accept the calling of being a pastor, you must live in such a way that it honors the mandate. That it honors the church, and that it honors God. When that does not happen, a change needs to be made and has been made in this case to ensure that standard is upheld.

Laura and I and our amazing children have given all that we have to serve and build this church and over the years I did not do an adequate job of protecting my own spirit, refilling my own soul and reaching out for the readily available help that is available. When you lead out of an empty place, you make choices that have real and painful consequences. I was unfaithful in my marriage, the most important relationship in my life and held accountable for that. This failure is on me, and me alone and I take full responsibility for my actions.

HIGH PROFILE MISNISTERS FAIL MORALLY

WITCHCRAFT, SPIRITUAL FATIGUE OR BOTH?

LENTZ's former girlfriend, called and spoke to the NY Post about their "five-month pandemic romance". "I'm here to tell the truth," NYC-based fashion designer Ranin, 34, told The Post, "and maybe by doing that, other people will have the courage to speak up too." According to the Post: The Palestinian beauty, 34, said she met Lentz on a Friday in May, at Williamsburg's Domino Park. Ranin was with her dog, looking for somewhere to sit when Lentz offered her his circle. They got to talking. They left the park together. "I was telling him everything," she said. "I thought he's single, he's a good-looking man, why not?"

They parted ways, but he took her number — in the Notes application on his iPhone, not as a saved contact. "That, for me, was a red flag," she said.

The next day he asked her to save him a circle in the park, she claimed. "When I saw him, he asked me so many questions," she said. Lentz, who famously baptized and was close friends with Justin Bieber, repeatedly told her that he worked with celebrities. She asked if he was married. He said yes. "I still didn't know who he was," she added.

After he left, she paid an app to do a background check based on his phone number. "Everything came out," she said. "It hit me so hard."

She realized she'd once met him, almost a decade prior when, following her divorce, a friend of hers had taken her to the Hillsong Church in Manhattan. "I wasn't really paying attention but I saw a glimpse of him," said Ranin, who is Muslim but "very open to whatever," and would attend church with her ex-husband's family while they were married.

"I was like damn, this is the guy from the church I saw seven years ago."

On Sunday that same weekend, he came to her house, she claimed, and they drank tequila and talked for hours. "We were sitting and he asked if he could put his hand on my thigh," she said. "It was awkward, he didn't know how to act at first. He was timid, acting like he was a virgin."

He allegedly told her "the most beautiful women come from the Middle East."

They began texting and FaceTiming constantly, she claimed, deluging each other with videos and digital communication. "We started to develop feelings for each other," she said, claiming they were seeing each other roughly every other week — always at her home, never at his. They'd drink tequila — so much tequila, she said — talk (although not about Christianity) and argue constantly. "I leave him on read all the time 'cause he pisses me off," she said.

He'd allegedly talk about how "amazing" his wife was and the guilt he felt about what he was doing to his family. "He kept saying that we didn't plan this, that this is life and we fell into it," she said. They repeatedly ended things. "I kept walking away," she said, but "he never knew how to say bye."

In September, they began seeing each other more, often twice a week. "We were obsessed with each other," she said. "He was like a drug to me. I was a drug to him."

Then, over the course of one weekend, his wife — and then his job — saw their texts. "All his messages are linked from the iCloud," she said, and somebody from Hillsong saw them on his computer. "He's not really a good cheater."

Even after he was fired, they continued speaking — up until a final exchange this past Thursday, following his Instagram post. "My life is over," he said, alleged Ranin. "I usually am the one who is helping. In retrospect, Ranin said their relationship was likely a product of the pandemic — "He hadn't been doing anything for so many months, he hadn't been onstage, what else was going on in his life? He needed to do something that would excite him." She also suggested he might be having a midlife crisis and going on a "self-sabotaging journey" by way of getting into a "fiery relationship" after spending so much of his life in a "stagnant relationship" and a "strict place."

A DIABOLICAL ASSAULT ON CHURCH LEADERS DURING THIS PANDEMIC

We have spoken of witchcraft and how invasive it is in the church. The fall of the ministers highlighted above shows how resolute the devil is in his fight against church leaders. None is exempt.

The coronavirus has been an evil platform from which multiple assaults have been launched. Many church leaders have been killed by the virus. Churches have been left to mourn many prominent leaders and church members. Most recently, in this month,

Bishop Harry Jackson Jr. an advisor to Donald Trump, died of the virus at age 66.

This attack by the enemy takes the shepherd away from the flock, BUT NOT MANY PEOPLE REALIZE THE DEVASTATING EFFECT ON LEADERS WHEN THEIR FLOCKS ARE TAKEN AWAY FROM THEM.

The devil knows this and is actively working it; orchestrating the fall of a number of church leaders.

For some megachurch leaders, their busy schedule has taken them away from ardent disciplined prayer and their most potent time with God is in preparation of their sermon. Losing this time of engaging their congregation can take the sting out of the preparation time and give the devil opportunities.

One of the greatest way to nullify an enemy is to take their weapons, prayer, the word, especially speaking the word. Faith comes by hearing. You are built by what you speak. For some churches, witches are positioned to minister the spirit of lust and they spend time sacrificing and incanting this on ministers.

The alleged girlfriend of Pastor Carl Lentz is quoted this way: In retrospect, Ranin said their relationship was likely a product of the pandemic — “He hadn’t been doing anything for so many months, he hadn’t been onstage, what else was going on in his life? He needed to do something that would excite him.”

Never take the strength of your minister for granted; pray, pray, pray; pray for your pastors.

Never take the fall of your pastor for gossip; pray, pray, pray for grace and restoration. There is witchcraft present in very church and demons seeking opportunities. The rise of the witchcraft age is not innocent; it is like a fireball growing with one primary target, the church and believers.

Churches are already endorsing homosexuality; there are some churches with priests who are deeply involved in the occultists but the innocent must pray. You are never excused. If the devil has his way your voice will be muted. The laws of your country will be hostile to your freedom. Persecution will begin in subtle ways but it will intensify.

IN THE SCRIPTURES BELOW WE WILL SHARE WHAT HAPPENS WHEN THE DEVIL STRIPS YOU OF YOUR WEAPON AND THE RELENTLESS FEROCITY OF SATAN FROM THE CWDS VERSION OF 1SAMUELS 13 AND JOB 1

WE COVER OUR LEADERS UNDER THE BLOOD; REPEL, BY ANGELIC FIRE, EVERY ATTEMPT OF THE DEVIL TO DEFEAT THEM OR DESTROY THEIR MINISTRY. EVERY SATANIC ALTAR SPEAKING AGAINST THEM BE DESTROYED NOW. FATHER, LET THE ARROWS OF THE ENEMY BE RETURNED TO THEIR SENDER NOW. EVERY DEMONIC PLANTATION IN OUR LOCAL CHURCHES, BE EXPOSED, BE DRIVEN OUT BY FIRE. LOVING FATHER, REFRESH OUR LEADERS WHO HAVE FALLEN, STRENGTHEN THEM IN THESE TIMES, HEAL THEIR FAMILIES AND RESTORE THEM AS YOU RESTORED KING DAVID AND THE APOSTLE PETER, IN THE NAME OF JESUS.

Holy Father, I release Your grace over my pastor and church leaders. I speak strength to their spirits now. Let their prayer altars receive fresh fire today; may their appetite for the word increase. May You increase their effectiveness in these times. By the power in the blood of Jesus, let every spirit assigned to wear them down receive angelic fire now. Let them be strengthened in every area of weakness and let them continue to herald Your victory. Amen.

WHEN THE ENEMY STRIP BELIEVERS OF THEIR STRENGTH

OH, no! The situation has turned!
We have stricken their garrison; now they come to us in swarms.
We have no sword nor spear for there is no
blacksmith in the land;
but we serve the Lord, the God of Israel,
and depend solely on His hand.
Israel is scattered! Where is Samuel? Is that the sacrifice that Saul burns?
Oh, praise the Lord, here is Samuel! Oh, no!
The situation has turned!

I SAMUEL 13

VERSE 19

¹⁹Now throughout all the land of Israel there was no blacksmith to be found, for the Philistines had said, "Lest the Hebrews make swords and spears."

@The Philistines had fought their battle, even before the war was on;

²⁰And all Israel would go down to the Philistines, every man, to sharpen his plowshare, his mattock, his axe and his sickle;

²¹and the charge for sharpening was a pim, for the plowshares, the mattocks, the forks and the axes and to set the points of the goads.

@Israel was content to have no weapons; but now, oh, no, the situation changed. Don't let the enemy strip you of your weapons; with the daily Word you must be armed.

Be prepared in times of peace; you will need your sword in times of war.

²²So in the day of battle, there was neither sword nor spear to be found in the hand of any of the people who were with Saul and Jonathan;

only with Saul and Jonathan his son alone.

²³And out to the passage of Michmash the garrison of the Philistines went.

@Jonathan had struck their garrison, now the situation turned against all Israel.

CWDS Bible Quotes

The enemy of God must be the enemy of the servants of God and they must know it.

The anointing stirring in you will stir you to stir up the enemy of the anointing; the anointing is powerful enough to settle its own quarrels.

You magnify the strength of your God when you stand confidently before your strong enemy; you magnify your weakness when you hide and run away trembling.

Be anxious for nothing, even in the most testing circumstances, for anxiety will override wisdom and judgment, and will magnify your problems.

Move with God rather than move against Him; never make a move in the flesh or it will move you from His grace.

When you are in a crisis find the peace where Christ is; it is a different picture when you fear and tremble before God instead of your crisis.

Your worse day begins when you deal with your situation your best way; your breakthrough is at hand but will ride away on the back of your breakdown.

Your good excuse is a very bad excuse if it excuses God from the solution.

Build your kingdom your own way and you break the only power to sustain your kingdom. Replace God from the solution and God will replace you from the answer.

The enemy will always try to strip you of your sword, the word, to control you and make you powerless against him.

PRAYER POINTS

Father, my love for You is unquestionable; I refuse to be friendly with any spirit that hates you, but I am ready to die for sinners as You were. Amen.

Amazing God, let the spirit of Christ in me agitate sinners to the battlefield of love, and let love settle the matter, in the name of Jesus.

Omnipotent Father, Your strength is unsearchable and Your commitment to me unquestionable; I refuse to be afraid before my strong enemies. Amen.

I know who I am and I know whose I am; I shall not be afraid; You are the strength of my life; why should I be afraid? Amen.

Prince of Peace, my strong shelter, I run to You. You are my peace, I shall not be moved. Amen.

The enemy will always try to strip you of your sword, the word, to control you and make you powerless against him.

Let every spirit assigned to steal my strength in God, receive angelic fire now, in the name of Jesus.

JOB 1—CWDS BIBLE WITH QUOTES & PRAYERS

SATAN'S DIABOLICAL RUTHLESSNESS

PERFECT and upright; he feared God and shunned evil;
Perfect and upright, but evil was there.
Great possessions, many oxen, seven sons and three daughters,
Flourishing but still yet, evil was near.
The sons of God met before God from all over;
Right in their midst Satan was there!
Lost possessions, lost oxen, lost sons and lost daughters,
Yet in a search of the heart, no evil was there.

JOB 1

¹There was a man in the land of Uz; his name was Job, that is right! He feared God and he shunned evil; he was perfect and upright.
²He had seven sons and three daughters.
³His wealth was seven thousand sheep, with three thousand camels in his might, he had oxen, donkeys and a very great household;
and evil had him in its sight. He was the greatest of all men, yes, all the men of the east;
⁴and his sons in their houses on their set day held a feast. They sent for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them. Job knew the way of evil, so he offered burnt offerings for them.
⁵After the days of feasting Job would send, and his sons he sanctified and according to their number, he offered offerings for their lives; saying, "It just may be my sons have sinned and cursed the Lord God in their hearts." This Job did frequently, that evil would stay far.
⁶Of all the places to see Satan, he was present at the meet of the sons of God who reported to God; yes, there was he.
⁷"Where are you coming from, Satan?" asked the Mighty from His seat. "I was patrolling all the earth;

I have walked up and down in it."
⁸"Have you considered Job, My servant?" The Lord wanted to know.
Guard your heart with all diligence, for Satan considers you.
"There is none like him in all the earth; he is perfect and upright, one who fears the Lord his God and removes evil from his sight."
⁹"I have considered all of this; does he fear You for nothing?"
¹⁰"I have tried hard to get at him but could not get through the hedge You placed; that is why he has not yet sinned! You have protected his house, and from every side I come at him, You have kept me out. You have blessed the work of his hand; his possessions You have increased. I have considered and have the perfect plan to get his praise to cease.
¹¹"Stretch out Your hand now and touch all that he has; he will curse You to Your face. This works every day."
¹²So God gave Satan power over all the possessions of Job, but he could not touch his person, so from God's presence he went out. Now the earth will see what happens when evil has its way; if he is just permitted, it does not take even a day.
¹³It was a day of food and drinking; eldest brother, it is your time. They could not discern the day of evil, so they relished the taste of wine. @But ears would be burning, as the day started to unfold that would crush many hearts when the ferocity was told.
¹⁴A messenger is coming; it seems he has the world to tell. "Job, the oxen plowed, the donkeys were feeding, ¹⁵"and on them, the Sabeans fell. They took them all away,

JOB 1—CWDS BIBLE WITH QUOTES & PRAYERS

SATAN'S DIABOLICAL RUTHLESSNESS

and with the sword your servants were slain;
and I am badly shaken;
I am the only one who escaped.”
@Satan ensured all was taken,
but he left a man to tell.
He would be adding flame to fire;
there would not be much time to think as well.

¹⁶While he spoke another came,
told him, “Fire came down from God.
A great ball pierced the heavens and burnt all the sheep you had.
It consumed all the servants!”
@You may have guessed the pattern by now;
he must be left with nothing but the message, and just by one.
Oh, and why are you looking?
Your guess is only right;
¹⁷another came to tell the tale
to add darkness to the night.
“The Chaldeans divided into three companies,
and carried the camels off.
They smote all the servants,
and I am left alone to talk.”
¹⁸While he was yet speaking
I guess by now you know,
another came to tell a tale
that struck the greatest blow!
“Your sons and daughters were drinking wine
in the eldest brother’s tent,
¹⁹“and a great wind from the wilderness,
brought the house right down on them.
It fell on all the young men,
@and everyone is dead.
I do not know how it missed me,
by an inch it missed my head.”
²⁰Job arose and ripped his mantle;
@he saw Satan’s evil wiles;
he used natural and unnatural elements
and the arms of men to fight.
He fell down and worshipped,
though the fire was hell hot!
Evil was in every place,
but in his heart it would be not.

²¹“The Lord gives and He takes away;
His name remains, The Blessed.
I came from my mother naked,
I will go back without the rest.”
@Evil came there a knocking,
but in his heart there was no room;
²²he did not sin or accuse God foolishly.
@though he faced a day of gloom!

CWDS Bible Quotes

To love God is to hate evil; to fear God is to shun evil; to fight God is to embrace evil.
Diligent devotion with persistence leads to distinguishing promotion and defining favor.
If the devil cannot infiltrate your defenses, it infuriates him to attack your children; intercede constantly.
Catch the eyes of God with your righteousness; capture the heart of God with your blamelessness and consistency.
There is no joke about you when God can boast about you before His enemy, Satan; He puts a wall of fire around you.
Your righteousness places you under hell’s scrutiny; the devil cannot penetrate your defenses but make no mistake, he is continuously trying.
Satan can only act on permits when he approaches the righteous; resist him and you restrict him and send him packing.
Satan only needs an opening to bring the house down; go hard against him because he is coming hard against you.
The devil has precision, timing, coordination and the arsenal of natural and supernatural forces and the arms of men.
Layers, upon layers, upon layers of prayer; pray without ceasing for the devil will attack you with layers upon layers upon layers of disaster.
It did not make you, do not let it break you; see God, seek God; believe God.
God is immutable, unassailable, indisputable, blameless and incorruptible; when the pictures of life change maintain your picture of Him.
God is the change you need who never changes in your changing circumstances.

COVID MENTAL ILLNESS 20% STATS

One in five COVID-19 patients develop mental illness within 90 days: study

According to a report in NPR news - many COVID-19 survivors are likely to be at greater risk of developing mental illness, psychiatrists said, after a large study found 20% of those infected with the coronavirus are diagnosed with a psychiatric disorder within 90 days.

Anxiety, depression and insomnia were most common among recovered COVID-19 patients in the study who developed mental health problems, and the researchers also found significantly higher risks of dementia, a brain impairment condition.

"People have been worried that COVID-19 survivors will be at greater risk of mental health problems, and our findings ... show this to be likely," said Paul Harrison, a professor of psychiatry at Britain's Oxford University.

Doctors and scientists around the world urgently need to investigate the causes and identify new treatments for mental illness after COVID-19, Harrison said.

"(Health) services need to be ready to provide care, especially since our results are likely to be underestimates (of the number of psychiatric patients)," he added.

The study, published in The Lancet Psychiatry journal, analyzed electronic health records of 69 million people in the United States, including more than 62,000 cases of COVID-19.

In the three months following testing positive for COVID-19, 1 in 5 survivors were recorded as having a first time diagnosis of anxiety, depression or insomnia. This was about twice as likely as for other groups of patients in the same period, the researchers said.

The study also found that people with a pre-existing mental illness were 65% more likely to be diagnosed with COVID-19 than those without.

Mental health specialists not directly involved with the study said its findings add to growing evidence that COVID-19 can affect the brain and mind, increasing the risk of a range of psychiatric illnesses.

"This is likely due to a combination of the psychological stressors associated with this particular pandemic and the physical effects of the illness," said Michael Bloomfield, a consultant psychiatrist at University College London.

Simon Wessely, regius professor of psychiatry at King's College London, said the finding that those with mental health disorders are also at higher risk of getting COVID-19 echoed similar findings in previous infectious disease outbreaks.

"COVID-19 affects the central nervous system, and so might directly increase subsequent disorders. But this research confirms that is not the whole story, and that this risk is increased by previous ill health," he said.

PASTOR JOHN HAGEE RECOVERING FROM COVID-19

HEALING JESUS, MAY ALL THE MEMBERS OF THE BODY OF CHRIST WHO HAVE CONTRACTED THE CORONAVIRUS BE COMPLETELY HEALED NOW. I DRAW THE CIRCLE OF THE BLOOD OF JESUS AROUND THE FAMILIES OF THE PEOPLE OF GOD AND COMMIT THEM TO YOUR PROTECTIVE CUSTODY AND RESTORATIVE LOVE, IN THE NAME OF JESUS. FEAR, ANXIETY AND MENTAL ILLNESS BELONG TO THE DEVIL AND STAYS WITH HIM. AMEN.

My Father my God, I cover my household under the blood of Jesus and by extension, my family. I thank You that the healing power in the blood of Jesus rests now on every member of my family. I reject the prophecy of sickness, depression and mental illness that the devil would have us believe. I take what is mine and give it to my community now. Let my community be healed; I assign the angels of the living God to reverse the curse released against us. Amen.

Extremely disturbing: Montana woman gets 50 years in prison for selling 5-year-old girl for sex.

Corena Marie Mountain Chief was sentenced Monday in the sexual abuse of children and trafficking of persons.

A Montana woman was sentenced Monday for selling a 5-year-old girl to a man for sexual purposes.

Corena Marie Mountain Chief, of Great Falls, was sentenced to 100 years in the Montana Women's Prison with 50 years suspended. She will not be eligible for parole for 25 years and must register as a Tier 1 sex offender. Judge John Larson described Mountain Chief's crime as an "extremely disturbing, serious offense" to a child who depended on her for safety. Mountain Chief, 43, was charged in 2019 with sexual abuse of children and trafficking of persons, both felonies, after a 12-year-old girl reported that Mountain Chief had sold her to Edwin Eugene Sherbondy, who sexually abused her when she was 5.

The trafficking charge was later dismissed.

The girl came forward after seeing 77-year-old Sherbondy's mugshot when police charged him with child endangerment. Lori Vallow, Mother of Two Missing Idaho Children, Arrested.

Lori Vallow was charged with two counts of desertion and lack of support for dependent children, Kaua'i police said Thursday in a statement. Police said that Vallow had failed to comply with a court order to hand over her children to the authorities by January 30.

INDIA'S MISSING CHILDREN THEIR BLOOD AND PAINFUL TORTURE IS CRYING OUT

It is estimated that a child goes missing in India every eight minutes. Many are trafficked as part of a nationwide trade which is separating children from their families. Millions end up in forced labor, domestic slavery and sex work, in what's become a lucrative industry.

With 60,000 children going missing in India every year, social media has propelled child lifting fear.

On average, a child goes missing every 10 minutes in India, according to the Women and Child Development ministry website for tracking missing children. At this rate, around 54,750 children would have been reported missing in the last year in India and only about half of them would have been traced, if one goes by the police record on the missing children.

This startling data could be considered nemesis of the mob lynching incidents over suspicion of the child lifting gangs in the Hindi heartland, which has high incidence of children going missing for a population of one lakh than other parts of India. The National Crime Records Bureau (NCRB) data on missing children for 2016 --- the last available record --- reports higher numbers of missing children (63,407) than what is estimated through WCD ministry's child tracking website.

The NCRB also throws up some other startling figures such as that 1,11,569 children were missing for more than a year in 2016 and only about half of the missing children were found.

India is home to more than 400 million children below the age of 18 years, and is considered one of the countries in which youth and children comprise more than 55% of the population. These missing children represent diverse cultures, religions, castes, communities, social and economic groups.

According to Childline, the national helpline for children, despite best efforts of the government, countless children go 'missing' every year without a trace.

It says the cases of missing children represent a conglomeration of problems --- abductions/kidnappings by family members, abductions/kidnappings carried out by non-family members or strangers, children who run away on their own or are forced to run away due to compelling circumstances in their families and extended surroundings and children who are trafficked or smuggled or exploited for various purposes.

The number on record of the missing children is the tip of an iceberg considering that many cases of missing children are not reported or not recorded by the police, especially in rural

WITCHCRAFT AND RITUAL ABUSE

MIGHTY GOD, RAIN FIRE ON EVERY SATANIST ABUSING CHILDREN IN RITUALS. LET THE ANGELS OF THE LIVING GOD DISRUPT AND SCATTER THEM NOW IN THE NAME OF JESUS. AS YOU DID TO ISRAEL WHEN THEY DEFILED THE GOOD LAND YOU GAVE THEM, LET THE SWORD, PESTILENCE AND FAMINE PURSUE THEM UNTIL THEY ARE TOTALLY WIPED OUT OR WITCHCRAFT IS WIPED OUT OF THEM. WE RELEASE THEM NOW TO THE TRUE HEART OF THE DEMONS THEY ARE COURTING AND TO THE LOVE OF SATAN. WE REMOVE THE SPIRIT OF DECEPTION THAT KEEPS THEM BELIEVING HE IS CAPABLE OF LOVING THEM. LET THE FIRE OF THE LORD CAUSE THEM TO EAT THE FLESH OF EACH OTHER AND RELEASE THE CHILDREN, IN THE NAME OF JESUS AMEN.

Righteous Lord, my tears overflow at the pain of the children of this generation who are abused physically, sexually and emotionally. I call upon You to enact Your covenant to make the lives of abusers worse than someone weighed down by a millstone and drowned. I call forth the angels of my children and the children of my family members to militancy now. Cover them from every satanic arrow directed at them from within or without, from society or electronically, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

THE KINGDOM MINDSET OF WORK

AN EVERY BELIEVER, EVERYDAY KINGDOM MANUAL

THE KINGDOM MINDSET OF WORK— A LIFETIME COMMITMENT

John sat at his desk at work just reminiscing on what he had previously done. More than ever he understood the importance of an attitude of work and resilience to the kingdom. A thought took him back to King David.

He could see King David working his way to the finish line. He did not stop investing himself in kingdom business until he got there; literally until he died. David was inactive on the battlefield. His men restricted him from going to war when he fainted on the battlefield because of age and almost got run over by a giant. As a young man he was fire; as an old man he still carried that fire in his spirit. David was not one to sit still. He tried doing it once and got in trouble, so much trouble, it cost him dearly. Then he could go to battle but stayed home and got distracted.

John paused and in his mind he could picture the many ministers of God getting distracted during this period of the coronavirus pandemic. The devil knows it is hard to take out a minister on the battlefield with the battlefield mind-set.

It is someone different to engage a minister with a battle mentality but who is inactive. Unless that person finds spiritual preoccupation in an adjusted routine, they are targets.

David knew this well and he sought for everything he could do for God and for the kingdom in his old age. He ensured he mentored and trained his son Solomon well but he needed more. Not only did he need more but he refused to go to his grave full. He wanted to ensure that all that the Lord had deposited in him was released to the kingdom. He wanted to go to his grave empty.

His heart settled on a temple for the Lord. If he could not go to battle He would prepare Israel for victory. There is nothing to secure victory for a nation than to culture the presence of the Lord and to nurture a healthy spiritual climate in the nation. He was very disappointed when, after initial agreement with his plan, the prophet Nathan returned with a message from God and restrained him.

David would not be stopped; he was told the temple was approved but it would be built by his son Solomon. God understood the heart of David, it was full of God. God was everything to him and because of this He gave him the architectural design for the temple. It was unique; like nothing ever built in his time. His son Solomon was to build the temple but David was not satisfied. He was not given the job as the builder but he could take the occupation as preparer.

He would occupy his time preparing. He would gain fulfillment to know he did everything he could to make it happen. He could not go but he could send, and if that was all he could do, he would give his heart, his strength and all his resources to it.

“There is always something to do for the kingdom of God,” John chuckled. “It may not be what you want, but if you understand it is not about you, it will always be with all your heart.”

THE KINGDOM MINDSET OF WORK

AN EVERY BELIEVER, EVERYDAY KINGDOM MANUAL

The one question to ask is, 'How will the kingdom benefit?'"

David's preparation was exceptional. The years leading to David's death saw the king busier than ever before. He had the plans so he knew the magnificence God was expecting and he gave it his magnificent best. His son would never wonder how to get started. David would give him a very good start.

"Is there any temple more magnificent in God's eye than a redeemed soul?" John thought aloud. "An earthly temple never makes it to heaven. Look what the Chaldees did to Solomon's temple."

David prepared gold, he prepared silver and he prepared timber. He organized the workers, singers, the musicians, the Levites. That was something that he could do, and he gave himself to it. David prepared even to his death. In fact the Bible quoted the last word of David in 2 Chronicles 23, he organized and structured the Levites, numbered them by house and designated them as gatekeepers, musicians and other service in the house of the Lord that was not yet built. He also numbered the priests and positioned them for service.

"Mmm," John thought. "Nothing stops you from giving your heart to whatever the Lord gives you the capacity to do. Nothing stops you from going all out even when you are all in; nothing stops you from winding out when your time is winding up. A kingdom mindset never quits. For the rest of the book of Chronicles capturing the last days of David's life, he detailed his charge and designation for the temple workers, charged his son Solomon before everyone with the duty of building the temple and publicly handed over his store of offering and provision he had made for the temple.

The kingdom mindset never entertains retirement until death or complete incapacitation; where you can work you give it everything; where you cannot work you impart, organize, empower, send and mentor. There will be more than enough time in glory to rest, but for now we labor until we enter there.

John smiled as he thought of his father. He had the kingdom mindset. He was dying of cancer and in extreme pain, but he would not go until John got this final impartation. He had taught John the ways of the kingdom, now he wanted to ensure his got the in his spirit the attitude of the kingdom. John had come to discover the urgency, the attitude of work and the priority kingdom demands. His father was in severe pain but he only allowed himself to sleep after John came by day by day and talked to him about his research.

If you want to accomplish anything for God, you have to give your heart to it, you have to give yourself to it, you have to give yourself for it, you have to give everything into it and you never stop until your breath ceases. Even when you are physically restrained.

If you want to get ahead then you have to get in, you have got to get down and you have to get doing because the devil never sleeps, his demons are always active, always working.

There is a people positioned on this earth to counteract Satan. The effect of many are muted by laziness. There is a generation to rescue and it will take more than just knowledge. It demands work. Father knows I am going to position my generation and do everything for them to get it.

What did Jesus say? Jesus said He must work the work of God who sent Him while it is day for the night is coming when no one can work.

PERSONAL EVANGELISM TO FAMILY, FRIENDS AND FAMILARITIES MORE THAN A CHOICE: AN OBLIGATION!

LOVE COMMANDS US TO EVANGELIZE. IT IS NOT OK, REALLY NOT OK TO SAY WE LOVE THEM AND SIT WITH THEM GOING TO HELL; DANCE WITH THEM GOING TO HELL; EAT WITH THEM GOING TO HELL; DO BUSINESS WITH THEM GOING TO HELL; HAVE FAMILY REUNION WITH THEM GOING TO HELL; PLAY WITH THEM GOING TO HELL AND DO NOTHING ABOUT THEM GOING TO HELL.

IN OTHER WORDS,
'TO HELL WITH THEM.'

WHERE IS THE LOVE? WHERE IS THE URGENCY? WHERE IS THE CONCERN TO SAVE THEM FROM THE AGONIZING DEATH JUST DOWN THE ROAD IN THEIR PATH?

THIS IS THE GREATEST DEMONIC DECEPTION AND PERSONAL HYPOCRISY. THE HEART NATURALLY RESPONDS TO PEOPLE WHOSE LIVES ARE IN DANGER EVEN TO ACTS OF SELFLESSNESS. INACTION TO ETERNAL DANGER IS DEMONIC AT THE VERY EXTREME. MAY THE LORD FREE YOU!

MILTON AND SHEENA MAYE

THE MARRIAGE COMMITMENT BIBLE

Just as with the Word of God, a marriage is a covenant filled with promises and great expectations that will never be achieved unless they are consciously and intentionally worked. In the 'Christian-walk' and the 'marriage-walk' many of the commitments conflict with personality and require growth and maturity. The paradise of your home is dependent on you dying daily to self (as Paul would put it).

In both the marriage and the Christian-walk, the same Holy Spirit is present to help you to grow and become fruitful. Christianity is in reality a marriage to Christ. God is Love and has commanded husbands to love their wives just as Christ loved the church and gave Himself for and to it. This summary helps you to break down the marriage vows to daily and

We are living in the end times. The coming of the Lord is much closer than we think. With the coming of end-times plagues and persecution, it is very important that families get even closer together. You will need people you can trust and truly rely on when evil has free reign. Your standing will depend on who you lean on. The devil knows this and is ferociously against marriages and will continue to intensify his assault. Maintaining strong marriage and family relationships in these times must be very deliberate and intentional. The marriage commitment Bible is a summary of commitments and pledges that couples should adopt or emulate to keep the marriage fire glowing.

We recommend you use these pledges or modify them to customize your own. Make your pledges to each other in sincerity, sign off on them and hand the signed document to your partner.

You will then review these pledges periodically, assess how faithful you were in the previous period, look at your failures, determine adjustments needed and renew your commitments. For some, this process will be annually on your wedding anniversary but for others it will be quarterly and for others, monthly.

Couples struggling in specific areas will seek to review those areas more frequently than the others.

You will however, pray the prayers continuously. For some it will be daily, for some weekly and for others monthly.

Whatever your approach is, this commitment Bible will help you break your marriage vows down into an everyday proactive, prayerful approach that will consciously keep the momentum going throughout your marriage.

PLEDGES AND PRAYERS

INTIMACY PLEDGE

I, (your name), and I, (her name), hereby commit to build intimacy constantly and consistently in my marriage so that intercourse is just a culmination of what happens constantly; I commit to creativity, and proactivity in speaking (name's) love language and to build passion with touching, playing, admiring, appreciating and complimenting in a deliberate way. I commit never to withhold sex for personal or emotional reasons or to withhold myself during sex but, to be even more animated to show my commitment when the marriage is under attack from the enemy.

Prayer Together

Awesome and amazing God, I thank You for giving to me such an amazing (wife/husband) I am so attracted to (him/her) and crazy about the times we spend together. I pray that you breathe upon our times of intimacy and make it heavenly every time for both of us and seal our friendship with love as we fulfill our commitment to build intimacy and passion throughout this marriage in and out of intercourse. Amen.

LONG DISTANCE RELATIONSHIP COMMITMENT

I, (your name), and I, (her name), hereby commit never to subject our marriage to the testing of long distance relationship; I commit to a vibrant relationship with you that necessitates standing the test of times together; I commit to be here with you and be available to you continually. If there is ever a time I am away for an extended period, I commit to make it all about you and to communicate the evidence continually. I commit also to bring back to you the token of that evidence in tangible thoughtfulness and to return to you with a hungry body craving your love.

Prayer Together

Oh Lord God of all flesh, I pray You release Your grace and favor into this marriage so that we will never have to be apart from each other for any reason. Remove greed from our hearts and help us never to put money or material comfort above our relationship. I pray You honor our commitment to sacrifice and that You will reward us with divine favors and success in every area of our marriage. Should we be apart for any unforeseen circumstances or by agreement, send your angels to block every attempt of the enemy to attack our marriage, and give us the grace to maintain strong romantic relations, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

PREVENTING CONFLICT OF TIME PLEDGE

I, (your name), and I, (her name), hereby commit to making my presence so desirable and lovable so that you will not only want to spend the rest of your life with me, but you will want to spend the bulk of your time with me; I commit to pursue every opportunity for us to spend time together and to engage in social and economic activities; I commit to wanting you around me at all times and to function in my capacity and with faithfulness and competitive effort for every platform we share apart from the home.

PLEDGES AND PRAYERS

Prayer Together

God of love who Himself is love, help me to enjoy (name's) company immensely; give us opportunities to maximize the time we spend together and the wisdom to function in our designated capacity where we share professional and public platforms; let our time together enhance rather than disrupt each other, in the name of Jesus.

CHANGE PLEDGE

I, (your name), and I, (her name), am committed to change where necessary to fulfil all my commitments to my marriage and to my spouse just as I am committed to change to fulfill my obligation to my Christian walk. I am committed to grow in grace and character and to the process of maturity as I pursue the perfection of God, the purity of God and the measure of the statute of image of Christ as commanded.

I refuse to be stuck in any of my ways, pattern of life, or habit, but to make the necessary adjustments to facilitate the Holy Spirit living in me. I recognize that the best of flesh is imperfect and effectiveness in every area of life requires growth; I commit to increase in knowledge, wisdom, patience, faith, generosity, love, gentleness, self-control, understanding and in my responsiveness to the God in me and to my duties as a husband/wife and father/mother.

Prayer Together

Holy Spirit, teacher, instructor, agent of growth and maturity, I release myself to You; develop Your fruits in me; change me into the image of Christ. I remain pliable in Your hands. Help me to demonstrate Christ in my marriage, in my home and in every other area of my life. I surrender my imperfections to You; I refuse to be stagnant or to think that I am above change; remove every evil thought from my heart and change me today. Amen.

REMINDING OURSELVES OF 2020 PROPHECIES OF WORSE TIMES AHEAD

Speaking in February 2020 at 2020 Prophets' Conference, prophet, Bro. Sadhu Sundar Selvaraj shared a very disturbing vision he had on the very day of the conference. Later in this magazine we will share a brief profile of Bro Sadhu and the other speakers at this conference.

BRO. SADHU'S REVELATION:

Now on the 20th of February 2020, I was called to come and wait at the presence of the Lord at ten in the morning and as I was waiting on the Lord, I was taken before His holy presence in the heavenly realm. As soon as I came and stood before the Lord Jesus, He looked at me and He said, 'The Father God wants to talk with you. You have an important message to carry back. Come with me now.' Then three times lightning and thunder came! So when the form of the Father God came and stood before me, so now I'm going to tell you exactly as how I received it from the Father God.

Another great wind is going to sweep all over the world, and when He spoke the word "wind", it was made for me to know this. Another great wind is going to sweep this whole world. The world is shaken with fear and trembling because of coronavirus but the word of the Lord came to say, another worse than coronavirus is going to come. When that comes, it will make this coronavirus look like child's play. So when this great wind comes, it will sting people like a hornet's sting. When a hornet stings a person, a person feels hot with fire-like sensation and swelling like boils appear on their body. In the same manner, when this wind stings a person that person will feel hot like fire over them and their temperature will rise above 100 degrees Fahrenheit, above 38 degrees Centigrade. So the feelings will be hot like fire burning all over their body and fever will shoot up in their bodies more than 100 degrees and boils will develop all over their faces and bodies especially in the chest area. These are the physical symptoms when this virus stings. Now doctors and scientists will be baffled and perplexed at not being able to discover at all any medicine or vaccine for this.

This morning I have read in the news a scientific report about this coronavirus, that the scientists are still trying to understand the DNA of this virus and they say a vaccine is still a long time away... there's no vaccine! And by the time they claim that they found something, this hornet will come to sting but this time the doctors and the scientists will not be able to discover any way how this virus works and they will not be able to discover any medicine or vaccine.

Catastrophic Events
of 2020 In Advance of November 2020

Pastor Dana Coverstone, Living Word Ministries, 173 Living Word Drive, Burkesville, KY

I saw fighting in the streets, I saw people pummeling one another. I saw businesses shuttered and shut up, I saw schools closed, I saw school rooms with cobwebs hanging in them and like things like papers falling off the wall and posters. It felt like no one had been in them for months. I saw banks, bank buildings with the roof being taken off and looked almost like alien abduction because money was just flying through the roof into some type of a vacuum cleaner, that sounds kind of strange, but I was watching wealth just being taken. I saw politicians in back rooms making deals with people, patting people on the back and laughing and smiling and smirking. I saw monuments, I saw Washington DC burning, I saw Washington DC blazing, I saw fires everywhere, I saw people being rounded up. I saw Chinese and Russian soldiers on the ground and the Russian soldiers were telling the Chinese soldiers to go and pick up these people, round up these people, secure this quadrant, secure this area. I saw blue helmets of the UN, I saw military things taking place. I also saw no sign of President Trump, I saw no sign of leadership in Washington DC but the vultures that I had seen were now like gargoyles and they were ten feet off the ground, ten to fifteen feet off the ground and they were just attacking people mercilessly. I saw people hiding in their homes and garages, I saw churches being burned, I saw homes being burned. I saw absolute chaos and the fist punch on the November of 2020 is what got my attention. Then I heard the words again, "Brace yourself, brace yourself."

CHILDREN AND YOUTH'S CORNER

FIVE(5) REASONS TO PRIORITIZE CHILDREN:

- I. What they will face in their generations will be significantly worse than anything you will ever face.
- II. They are being proactively evangelized by demonic influences through very accessible, enjoyable and engaging mediums.
- III. They are usually not self-motivated to pursue spiritual things.
- IV. You lose the children you lose a generation; the instruction is to train them in the way they should go so they will make good choices in their generation.
- V. It is every believer's mandate.

OUR CHILDREN ALL BELONG TO GOD; THEY ARE ENTRUSTED TO YOUR CARE AS MOSES WAS TO HIS MOTHER'S. YOU HAVE A DUTY AND RESPONSIBILITY TO RAISE THEM WELL FOR THE KING.

The cross is the most beautiful gift we can offer our children.

SUFFER THE LITTLE CHILDREN TO COME TO ME!
FORBID THEM NOT!

SUFFER THE CHILDREN

- Convey them
- Make provision for them
- Make allowance for them
- Do not ignore them
- Be pro-active to reach them
- Expend your resources on them
- Direct them
- Prioritize them
- Give them the time, attention, details and patience they need.

DO NOT FORBID

- Do not slight them
- Do not ignore them
- Do not turn them away
- Do not prevent them
- Do not marginalize them
- DO NOT OFFEND THEM BY DOING NOT! (THING)
- OR BY NOT DOING ENOUGH.
- Do not relegate them to the world social media agenda

MATTHEW 19:14

It simply means that the church must design specific, intentional, proactive programs to reach, minister, disciple, educate and inform the children and youths. COVID-19 is not an excuse, instead it is a new opportunity for the church to begin to see the internet as a ministry opportunity to a generation totally dis-engaged and distracted.

RESPONSE TO

CHILDREN AND YOUTH MINISTRIES

HEAVENLY FATHER, RELEASE THE GRACE FOR EFFECTIVE CHILDREN MINISTRY UPON EVERY CHURCH AND EVERY HOME TODAY. I PRAY THAT THE CHILDREN WILL NOT BE ABANDONED IN THESE TIMES, BUT THAT CHURCHES WILL PROACTIVELY DEVELOP AND DESIGN PROGRAMS TO EFFECTIVELY TRAIN AND DEVELOP OUR CHILDREN AND YOUTHS TO BE FIERY CHRISTIANS. AS CHURCHES PROACTIVELY MINISTER TO CHILDREN IN THESE TIMES, LET THEM BE DIVINELY EMPOWERED TO ENGAGE CHILDREN EFFECTIVELY. FOR THOSE CHURCHES WHO ARE CONTEMPLATING IN-PERSON MEETINGS, I SPEAK SAFETY AND THE GRACE FOR CONSISTENT VOLUNTEERS. THANK YOU LORD JESUS FOR MINISTRIES WILLING TO FIGHT FOR THE NEXT GENERATION, IN THE NAME OF JESUS.

Holy Spirit, cover my home under the blood of Jesus. My children shall serve You. Make me an effective minister to my children. Release the grace to engage my children effectively and to model You before them. Teach me so I may train them to be the persons You are calling them to be. I refuse and reject the spirit of complacency, of laziness and surrender. My children shall passionately love You with awareness of the times and of Your word and they will be empowered to make right choices. Amen.

The Caribbean Worship and Devotional Study Bible Foreworded by the Late Dr. Myles Munroe. This Project was titled Complete Caribbean Bible, by Dr. Myles Munroe in 2009.

THE FOREWORD:

This erudite, eloquent and immensely thought-provoking work gets to the heart of one of the deepest contradictions within our culture-the contemporizing of the Word of God in the first complete Caribbean Bible.

This is indispensable reading for anyone who wants to live life above the norm.

This is a profound authoritative work which spans the wisdom of the ages and yet breaks new ground in its approach and will possibly become a classic in this and the next generation.

This exceptional work by Milton Maye is one of the most profound, practical, principle-centered approaches to this timely issue and brings a fresh breath of air that captivates the heart, engages the mind and inspires the spirit of the reader.

The author's ability to leap over complicated theological and metaphysical jargon and reduce complex theories to simple practical principles that the least among us can understand is amazing.

This work will challenge the intellectual while embracing the laymen as it dismantles the mysteries of the soul search of mankind and delivers the profound in simplicity.

Milton's approach to the daily application of scripture awakens in the reader the untapped inhibitors that retard our personal development and his anecdotes empower us to rise above these self-defeating, self limiting factors to a life of exploits in spiritual and mental advancement.

The author also integrates into each chapter the time-tested precepts giving each principle a practical application to life making the entire process people-friendly. Every sentence of this book is pregnant

2KINGS 4—CWDS BIBLE WITH QUOTES & PRAYERS

THE SECRET STRUGGLES OF POWERFUL PUBLIC LEADERS

GOD cares for the worker who has just one pot of oil;

He cares for the prophet and He will give him his desire.

He cares for His servants who feed the prophet's mouth;

And He cares for your pottage and will take the danger out.

He will multiply your basket yet more and more, so do not fear;

He gives you priests and prophets to reassure you that He cares.

2 KINGS 4

¹A widow, the former wife of one of the prophets came to Elisha, and said, "My husband is dead; he feared the Lord; you know this; now the creditor is here to take my two sons as bondmen."

@God cares for the concerns of all those in His service and those who toil.

²"What do you have in your house?" he asked. She said, "Nothing but one pot of oil."

³He said, "Borrow empty vessels of your neighbors; do not borrow a few.

⁴When you get back in, shut the door on your sons and on you.

"Pour the oil into all those vessels and set aside that which is full."

⁵So she went from him and shut the door on herself and on her sons.

They brought the vessels to her and she poured out that day, ⁶and when there were no more vessels, only then did the oil restrain; it stopped flowing then.

⁷She came and told the man of God, and he said, "Go sell the oil and pay your debts;

@And know the Lord cares when you can live well from the rest."

He cares for the woman who does a good deed,

⁸And when the prophet is passing, gives him a room to rest in and food to eat. So did this great woman of Shumen, to Elisha very often;

she constrained him to eat a meal every time he passed.

⁹She said to her husband, "I perceive this is a holy man of God who passes by continually; let us build him a room on the wall.

¹⁰"Let us set a bed and table there for him, a stool and a candlestick;

¹¹and so when he comes to us, in this room he shall turn in."

¹²And Elisha said to Gehazi his servant, "Call to me this Shunammite."

¹³And when she stood before him, he said, "Speak to her in this way;

You have been mindful of us with much care; what is to be done for you?

Would you be spoken for to the king or captain of the host?"

She said, "I dwell among my own people."

¹⁴And he said, "How then do we show you God's care?"

Gehazi answered, "Verily she has no child, and her husband is old and grey."

@To know that your labor of love is not in vain, and to know you are appreciated by God and also by men, is to know how much He cares.

¹⁵Elisha said to her then, "You shall embrace a son next year about this time."

¹⁶But she protested saying, "No my lord, man of God, to your handmaid do not lie."

@But God cares for the prophet, and He honors his words, so let what he tells you be as precious as pure gold.

¹⁷The woman conceived and she bore a male child

as Elisha had said, "According to the time of life."

¹⁸One day, when the child was grown he went out to his father and the reapers in the field;

¹⁹he cried to his father, "My head! Oh, my head aches."

He said, "Carry him to his mother; her care let him receive."

²⁰She nursed him until noon and there he died on her knees.

²¹She laid him then on the bed of the man of God;

she shut the door on him and went out,
purposeful but sad.
²²She called her husband and said, "Send me one of the young men and an ass;
I have an errand to tend to, and I must do this fast.
To the man of God I go."
²³He said, "Is it well, it is not sabbath or new moon!"
She heard her husband's concern, but she said, "It is well; meaning it shall be well soon."
²⁴She said to the servant, "Do not slack your riding for me unless I bid that this be done."
²⁵She came to the man of God to mount Carmel, and from a distance he saw her come.
He said to Gehazi, "Behold the Shunam-
mite;
²⁶"run to her and say,
'Is everything well with you and with your husband and with your child this day?'"
She responded, "All is well."
²⁷But when she came to the man of God in the hill,
she caught him by the feet; and Gehazi came near to thrust her away from him.
He said, "Let her alone; she is vexed to the soul,
and the Lord has hid it from me, this thing
He has not shown."
*@He cared for this woman who had given
so cheerfully;*
²⁸She said, "Did I desire a son? Did I not say, 'do not deceive me!'" ²⁹He said to Gehazi, "Gird up your loins
and take my staff and go;
salute no man and do not answer them if they should salute you.
This is no time for social; lay my staff on the child's face." ³⁰The mother said, "As the Lord and my soul lives, I will not leave you this day."
@Nothing but personal assurance for the matter at hand.
³¹So he rose up and followed her, and be-

He laid the staff on the child's face, but no voice or response came.
So he went again to meet him and to tell him,
"The child is not awakened."
³²When Elisha came into the house, the dead child laid on his bed.
³³He went in therefore, and shut the door on the two of them;
he prayed to the Lord and lay upon the child, ³⁴and placed his mouth on his mouth and his eye on his eye.
He stretched on the child, and the flesh became warm;
³⁵he returned, and to and fro in the house he walked.
He went again and stretched on him, and the child sneezed seven times.
God cared for the prophet's intercession, and the child opened his eyes.
³⁶He said to Gehazi, "Call the Shunammite," and when to him she had come,
³⁷he said, "Take your son," and she fell at his feet and bowed.
And she took her son and went out,
³⁸and to Gilgal once more Elisha came.
There was a famine in the land, and the sons of the prophets sat before him that day.
He showed he cared for them, as to his servant he said,
"Set the great pot on and boil stew now for all of them."
³⁹And one went into the field to gather herbs,
and he found a wild vine;
he emptied his lap full of wild gourds into the pot, not knowing the danger at that time.
⁴⁰They poured out for the men to eat, and one cried out and said, "Behold!
Oh, man of God, there is death in the pot."
They could not eat of it,
⁴¹but he said, "Bring meal."
And he cast it into the pot and said, "Pour out that the people may eat."
There was no harm in the pot after this.
And God cares for your giving; He will multiply your gifts to Him.
⁴²From Baal-shalisha a man came, and brought Elisha first-fruits and bread,
twenty loaves of barley and grain in the husk,

and the prophet Elisha said,
“Give to the people to eat,” he cared that they were fed.
43But the server said, “What? Should I set this before a hundred men?”
He said once more, “Give to the people that they may eat!
For this says the Lord, They shall eat of it and have some left.”
44And he set it before them, and they ate of it and left some remaining, according to the word the man of God had said; for indeed the Lord cares.

CWDS Bible Quotes

You may never know the personal crisis through which your leaders minister, continue to pray for them and to minister to them. Everyone has a deposit of oil, a measure of the anointing; the power for expansion, distinction and provision.
God will use what you have to bless you, if you will put what you have to use.
Get into your secret place and close the door on you to stir up the anointing and uncover the well; private place for public glory.
The anointing will flow when you have the heart and the mind to flow with the anointing, to go; you must find vessels to pour into.
The anointing you have in your vessel must be poured into others to keep flowing; the anointing will stop flowing when you stop pouring.
Make room for the anointed and the anointing will create doors for you into the impossible.
The presence of the anointing or the anointed does not mean you will not attract the attack of the enemy; the greater the anointing the greater the targeting.

Not because your situation seems dead means it is buried; the God who gives life is able to bring dead situations back to life.
Sometimes you may have to leave the closest friends out of your problem or they may delay, divert or distract your audacious faith; the woman did not tell her husband about his own dead son.
The sensitivity of your mission may require intense focus.
Never replace the messenger with the message; never replace the Source with the blessing.
Pour your anointing into dead situations and they will breathe life.
Give it everything; go full stretch.
You have the salt in you to remove the poison cooking in the evil cauldrons of this world.
When you submit your provision to the Lord's use, it will be a blessing to the kingdom, to the people and to you.

PRAYER POINTS

Father God, we speak grace for personal breakthrough to every leader and minister in the church, in the name of Jesus.
Holy Spirit, help me to recognize the full potential of Your deposit in me, in the name of Jesus.
Most High God, I place great value on every talent You have invested in me and I make this commitment to maximize them for the kingdom. Amen.
Power for personal discipline in prayer and devotion envelope believers and make them a distinction, in the name of Jesus.
Son of God who died, I will go, I will run, I will speak; I will be an active and flowing repository of Your anointing. Amen.

You may never know the personal crisis through which your leaders minister, continue to pray for them and to minister to them.

Everyone has a deposit of oil, a measure of the anointing; the power for expansion, distinction and provision.

Get into your secret place and close the door on you to stir up the anointing and uncover the well; private place for public glory.

KINGDOM FINANCING – TEMPLE PREPARATION

THE BLESSING OF ABRAHAM

The first Voice in heaven, received the offering of Abraham. It was a very sweet perfume to Him. It was not the smell of burning flesh, but the smell of faith. It was the savor of a heart that was rightly aligned to Him. It was the sweet smelling aromatic taste of righteousness, as it were, on His taste buds and in His nostrils.

He turned to the second Voice and said, “Our plan of redemption is progressing perfectly. Just as Abraham offered his son because he loved Me, I have offered You because I love the world. He does not know it, but You are the fulfillment of My promise to him. His blessing was never to establish his plans, it was always meant to establish My plans. It was never about Isaac, it was always about You, Jesus. It was never about Isaac’s seed, it was always about Your seed.

The blessing was never for his consumption, it was always for the redemption of all mankind. Through him, or rather through his offspring, You Jesus, all families of the earth will be blessed.”

The second Voice looked down from Heaven. Time had passed. He had obeyed His Father and sacrificed Himself for mankind. He had returned to Heaven, to that place where time has no place. He was looking down at one of His apostles who was trying to explain this complication to the Galatians. The third Voice intercepted His thoughts and redirected the conversation the apostle was having. This apostle Paul, began writing. He was surprised himself at what he had written.

The apostle was in tears. He felt the inspiration of God as he sat there.

He was overcome as he read his own statement, “He did not say, ‘And to seeds,’ as of many, but as of one, ‘And to your Seed,’ who is Christ.” This astounded him. “Where did that come from?” he thought.

He paused to read, and to reflect on all he had just written in this letter to the Galatians. He needed time to digest it as if he was seeing and hearing it for the first time. “...Just as Abraham believed God and it was credited to him as righteousness, only those who are of faith are sons of Abraham,” he continued. This would pierce the hearts of the religious people he lived among, but it was the truth. The truth may hurt but it also heals and prospers. He read his explanation, satisfied, “The Scripture records God’s intention to bless the Gentiles by faith, and so He preached the gospel to Abraham in advance.”

What was that gospel? “In you all nations shall be blessed.”

That was a Wow moment for Paul. It was an amazing revelation for him, although it was he who had just written it.

KINGDOM FINANCING – TEMPLE PREPARATION

The blessing was not for the nation that blossomed from Abraham's children. This was not limited to Abraham's offspring although God had promised to make of him a great nation.

The promise was for 'all nations'. It was much bigger than Abraham.

The first and second Voice smiled as Paul deliberated. He had caught up with a conversation that was held a long time ago in Eternity. The third Voice had opened up the oracles of God to him.

Paul continued reading and reflecting. His understanding flowing like a river from then and he had just kept writing and writing.

He was being blessed tremendously by what he had written.

He read as a spring of joy exploded in his heart.

"So those who are of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham. Those who seek justification by the law are under a curse. For the Scripture says, 'Cursed is everyone who does not continue in the book of the law to do them...'"

As he read he transitioned from thinking to meditation. "This is what the word of God says, 'The just shall live by faith.' Help me! It is very obvious. The law is not by faith. Under the law, you live only by performance of the law. With faith there is no performance, just belief.

But how do we transition? We do not need to."

Paul laughed to himself. "Christ had redeemed us from the curse of the law!"

The Voices in heaven smiled, "The redemption plan".

Paul continued his meditation, "They will ask, 'How did He do it?' Well, He became a curse Himself.

Is it not the law which says that everyone who hangs on a tree is cursed?

But what is the purpose of His redemption? Like a chorus, all three Voices joined Paul's meditation at this point.

They all said together, "That the blessings of Abraham may come unto the Gentiles, through Christ." "Through You," the first and third Voice said.

"Through Me," The second Voice echoed.

"That they may receive the promise of You living in them," He continued addressing the third Voice.

"All of this is through faith." Paul would conclude.

His summary of this revelation would be forwarded to the Corinthians and to the Galatians:

"For you are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ.

There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.

And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's children, and heirs according to the promise."

Paul would continue to write some salient points on the matter in his letter to the Galatians and to the church globally. He would present reasoning and revelations that would be hard to ignore, hard to dispute, and impossible to dismiss.

The Voices in heaven had 'connected the dots' for all mankind.

The blessing of Abraham was for everyone who received Jesus Christ by faith.

The blessing had an effect and the blessings had a purpose.

HEAVEN, HAVING SACRIFICED, RELEASED ITS BLESSINGS IN THE EARTH IN A TEMPLATE; IT WAS A PACKAGE TO ONE MAN WHO WAS PREPARED TO DO WHAT HEAVEN HAD DONE, SACRIFICE HIS SON.

THE BLESSINGS WAS INTENDED FOR ALL PEOPLE

THE TEMPLATE FOR THE BLESSING IS SACRIFICE. AS IN HEAVEN, SO ON EARTH.
